Man held after European hunt for child sex tapes

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

A MAN has been arrested following a Europe-wide operation to track down customers of an internet website selling videos of child sex abuse.

Thames Valley Police revealed on Monday that a 39-year-old man from Bletchley was identified and arrested on September 27.

The man, who has not been named, was arrested on suspicion of committing offences relating to the possession, making and distribution of indecent images of children.

It is the latest arrest under Operation Koala, which was initiated by the Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre in 2006.

The operation targeted the sexual abuse of children from a modelling website based in Italy that allowed customers from all over the world to order tailor-made videos depicting children being abused.

In June 2007 the material was passed to CEOP which holds UK responsibility for receiving intelligence and information from overseas on child sexual abuse crimes.

CEOP's Intelligence Faculty analysed and developed the material and passed details of individual suspects to local police forces including Milton Keynes police, who initiated their own investigation.

Chief executive of the CEOP Jim Gamble said: "Operation Koala uncovered the true meaning of 'online child abuse'. In this case, the exchanging of images in which real children were subjected to horrific sexual abuse, often to order.

"Yet again we see the technology used by paedophiles to facilitate child abuse now turned against them as a result of coordinated and effective international law enforcement cooperation."

Three other men were arrested by Thames Valley Police on the same day, at addresses in Oxfordshire, Newbury and Amersham.

So far 38 suspects have been arrested in the UK, with more arrests expected in the near future.

Detective Sergeant Duncan Wynn, from the High Tech Crime Unit, said: "These arrests are significant in the fight against child sex offenders and we, along with CEOP and the 20 other Forces involved, are dedicated to catching these offenders and stopping the abuse of innocent children."

The Bletchley man has been released on police bail until January.

Bitter row over city centre parking

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

CITY centre public highway utilised for parking has been acquired by English Partnerships (EP) for development.

The government quango has given BP and two other employers at Witan Gate House a chunk of land for its staff to use after it had the public highway stopped up by a district judge.

Barriers stop anyone without an electronic card from gaining entry.

But other central Milton Keynes offices say it has caused havoc for their workforces.

EP needed to free up the land to make way for the new West End One housing development.

BP and its landlords wanted reassurance its staff would still have dedicated parking spaces.

Paul Davis, a partner in city accountants Keens Shay Keens based at nearby Sovereign Court on Upper Fifth Street, says his staff have felt the impact of the move.

He said: "One of my staff had to park down by Jaipur today, and that was at 8.55am.

"We've had to put most of our people on flexi-time so that they can park.

"They are not all permanently office-based, they go out and see clients and they can't park when they get back.

"We're actually contemplating what to do, whether to move out of the city centre. Our 25-year lease runs out in 2011."

The council applied to Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court for a stopping up order to close off the land.

Due to objections the case was heard by a district judge on September 27, and the order was agreed.

A council spokesman said: "Before agreeing to the deal BP and their landlords sought reassurance that there would still be dedicated parking spaces for its staff.

"The area surrounding Witan Gate House is no longer public highway – however no parking spaces have really been lost to the public, as the vast majority were already being used by BP staff."

The issue has been highlighted by Urban Eden, an organisation set up to protect Milton Keynes during its redevelopment.

BP press officer Sheila Williams said: "BP is just one of three companies in the building and the proposed car parking spaces are to be shared among staff from the three building tenants.

"For clarification, not all spaces around Witan Gate House are currently used by BP employees, they are also used by people employed in other buildings around the area."

A spokesman for English Partnerships said: "Plenty of alternative spaces have already been made available by English Partnerships around the site.

"On a typical weekday there are still over 300 unused standard rate spaces and over 30 premium spaces unused in the B3 block, for the public to use.

"English Partnerships is working with Milton Keynes Council to procure a new permanent 320 space underground car park on B4 block which should be available in about two years."

Mr Davis added: "They've got to do something about car parking.

"What they should have done is ensured developers put in underground parking like in other places."

Most of the land marked for development and bounded by Avebury Boulevard and Witan Gate, Grafton Gate and Childs Way was already owned by EP prior to the order.

Reporter faces misconduct charges

FOUR people have been charged following an investigation by Thames Valley Police and Hertfordshire Constabulary into allegations that sensitive information has been leaked to the media and other parties.

On Monday morning officers from Thames Valley Police's Professional Standards Department charged four people in connection with misconduct in a public office.

Ex-Thames Valley Police officer Jonathan Mark Kearney, 48, from Wadworth Holme, Middleton, was charged at Banbury police station on Monday.

Mr Kearney, known as Mark, was charged with eight offences of wilful misconduct in a public office.

His son, Harry Mark Kearney, a 20-year-old soldier from Waterbeach Barracks in Cambridgeshire, has also been charged with one count of aiding, abetting, counselling and procuring misconduct in a public office.

He was also charged with possession of a Class A drug.

MK Citizen reporter Sally Murrer, 49, of Whipsnade Road, Kensworth in Bedfordshire, has been charged with three offences of aiding and abetting misconduct in a public office.

Derek Frank Webb, 53, of Springfield Crescent in Harpenden, Hertfordshire, was charged with five offences of aiding and abetting misconduct in a public office.

All four have been released on bail and will appear at Kingston-Upon-Thames Magistrates' Court on November 15.

Rogue trader: Nick Leeson at Inside Ex business exhibition

Here's how not to do it

LEADING lights on the business scene had the chance to lunch with a notorious celebrity.

Nick Leeson, the rogue trader, who managed to bust the Queen's bankers' Barings in 1995 with a series of daring high risk share deals, was a guest speaker at the Inside Ex business exhibition.

Leeson's own story of his rise and fall proved to be a candid and compelling story for those present at the event held at the MK Dons Stadium.

Glamourpuss WAGs blag club goodies

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

A CITY nightclub has launched a WAG card for the city's most glamorous women.

The limited edition luminous pink card – of which only a limited number have been made – are being given out by invitation only at Oceana.

Anyone who manages to get one will enjoy VIP status, queue jump and free entry on any night of the week – for four people.

The management team is convinced that Milton Keynes has its fair share of gorgeous girls who would make good WAG material.

The term WAG was coined during the World Cup and refers to footballers' wifes and girlfriends. The most famous wags include David Beckham's wife Victoria Beckham, Wayne Rooney's fiancee Colleen McLoughlin and Ashley Cole's wife Girls Aloud star Cheryl Cole.

But getting your hands on a WAG card isn't easy.

Women who think they've got what it takes are asked to send a photo of themselves to the club.

Management will then take their pick from all the photos recieved.

Manager Mark Molton said: "The glamorous people, the glamoratti, will get them by invite if we think they're good enough.

"We're fed up seeing the papers full of WAGs, we think there's enough glamour locally.

"So we're picking Milton Keynes' WAGs."

The fluorescent pink colour was chosen by Mr Molton's six-year-old daughter.

He said: "There were gold, silver, glittery cards, and she chose the bright pink one.

"So that's the one we went for.

"And everyone who sees it goes 'Wow'."

The card is the brainchild of Milton Keynes project manager Lucy Herlihy, but five other branches of Oceana are jumping on the bandwagon and adopting the WAG card too.

Selection will take place over the month of November.

Email a photo of yourself to oceana-miltonkeynes@luminar.co.uk.

Golf day ruckus hours after star-studded gala

FOUR people have appeared in court after a man was found badly injured at Woburn Golf and Country Club.

Police were called to the golf club on Thursday after receiving reports that a man suffering from injuries had walked inside the club house shortly after 9.15pm.

Just hours earlier the club had hosted a golf day and gala dinner for England One-Day Cricket captain Paul Collingwood.

Wives and businessmen were celebrating his testimonial alongside cricketers including Michael Vaughan and Andrew Strauss, ex-footballer Ray Wilkins and guest speaker Dennis Taylor but none of the guests witnessed the incident.

Between 2am and 5am on Friday police arrested four suspects who were later charged with wounding with intent.

Jason Brown, 18, Luke Gates, 18, CJ Kriss Gulwell, 47, and Jason Gulwell, 25, all from Franklins Croft, Wolverton, appeared at Milton Keynes' Magistrates Court on Saturday.

All four defendants were remanded and will appear at Aylesbury Crown Court on Friday.

It's no Wokingham, but it's better than Chesterfield

A SURVEY has put Milton Keynes 178th in a list of the best places to live, based on quality of life.

The city has slipped 22 places since last year when it ranked 156th.

The survey says quality of life is better in places such as Bedford, Aylesbury Vale, Macclesfield and Braintree in Essex than it is here.

South Buckinghamshire, which is just below Milton Keynes on the map, was awarded second place in the chart.

Four hundred and eight local authorities were analysed in the survey, in which Wokingham came up trumps.

Of the top 30 local authorities, 22 are in the South East of England - the same region as Milton Keynes.

The Halifax Quality of Life Survey tracks where living standards are highest based on housing and labour markets, education, health and the environment.

The worst place to live is Chesterfield.

Factors measured include employment rate, number of rooms in the average house, traffic rates, burglary rate, rainfall, sunshine, and life expectancy.

Council leader Isobel McCall said: "It is obviously judged on how wealthy an area is, looking at house prices and income.

"I would say that clearly there are other things in life, and actually on the whole most people in Milton Keynes have a very good quality of life.

"Other surveys have put us on top. There are very high satisfaction levels with the people who live here, and that's what's important to me."

Milton Keynes has an employment rate of 77 per cent, compared with 80.6 per cent for top spot Wokingham and 82.1 per cent for second place South Buckinghamshire.

The average gross weekly earnings here are £553, and the burglary rate is 44 per 1,000 population.

Life expectancy for a male is 77-years-old, and 49.9 per cent of people get five or more A-C grade GCSEs.

Martin Ellis, chief group economist at Halifax, said: "People living in Wokingham have the best quality of life in Great Britain.

"They tend to be healthy, live in larger houses and have relatively high earnings.

"Wokingham also has good schools and the weather is better than average.

"However, living in Wokingham comes at a price, with house prices £45,000 above the average for the South East."

Nursery closure

SIR – May I, on behalf of the parents whose children attended Primary Steps Nursery in Bletchley, thank the staff there for dedication beyond the call of duty.

When the company that owned the nursery went into administration, staff and parents were given just a week's notice before the nursery closed.

Staff face a bleak Christmas, with the sudden loss of their jobs and no guarantee of redundancy pay. Like everyone else, they have mortgages to pay and families to support.

No one would have blamed them if they had shut the nursery immediately, but Susan Coleman and her team worked on through the last week, determined that the children who attended the nursery would not suffer any more than was necessary.

Anyone who attended the Big Goodbye Party there last week would have been left in no doubt about just what a special place Primary Steps Nursery was.

The decision to shut Primary Steps at such short notice is appalling.

It is a case of a London-based big business making a decision without regard to its impact across the Bletchley community.

It leaves working parents such as myself desperately seeking childcare, and with little opportunity to settle our children into new nurseries before leaving them to return to work. There is no guarantee that we will be able to reclaim our deposits or any overpaid fees from the parent company.

Nurseries are more than just a business – they are a vital part the local communities that they serve and a lifeline for hardworking parents.

The staff at Primary Steps played a vital role in the Bletchley community, and I'd like to wish them the best of luck in the future.

Accident highlights the need for more grid-roads in the city, not less

SIR – Your readers might like to reflect on the lady lucky enough to be air-lifted to hospital from a grid-road last week (MK NEWS front page).

The air ambulance was able to land on the wide carriageway, and motorists could use other roads on the grid to go about their business.

The Mayor is to be applauded for supporting the Air Ambulance Service as his charity this year.

Many new areas of MK are being built without such gridroads, thanks to Lib-Dem development policies.

So if a similar accident happens in years to come, in the Eastern or Western Expansion Areas, there will be no fast roads to get traffic out of the area, no wide space to land a helicopter, and no interconnected network of alternative roads for people to use in the meantime.

An ordinary ambulance would have to get in and out by road, subjecting its injured passenger to all the speed-humps and other traffic-annoyance devices.

Without grid-roads, the lady's chances of survival would have been much reduced. Grid-roads for new areas of MK are not just an economic imperative, they could be a matter of life or death.

Cllr John Bint
MK Conservatives, Middleton Ward

Wind farm woes

SIR – At last!

A pro-wind farm letter (R Barfoot) that recognises that not all proposals are good and that there should be sensible planning rules – amongst other things to protect residents.

If the wind industry, the Government and the green lobby did not insist on simply denying the worst impacts of wind farms and ignoring inconvenient expert advice, then perhaps we would see proposals that respected the interests of local communities and the local environment. Such proposals would generate little opposition and result in rapid approval and development of sites.

Two inconvenient truths from experts that relate to the local proposals are:

■ poor wind speeds mean that we should not be sitting wind farms 'from Lincolnshire down to the Thames estuary, across to Hertfordshire and back up the central spine of England to Lincolnshire'

■ large turbines should not be sited within one mile of homes to avoid noise problems.

When people really find out about these giant turbines they are shocked.

Taking time to visit a wind farm after noise complaints, US Senator John Eichelberger said: "Although I have been given a lot of information about these things, I was startled at their size.

"There needs to be more discussion on the placement of these structures and their effect not only on the environment but on the people who live close by. I'm sure the property values of this immediate area have been negatively effected."

Large-scale wind farms are not the only option – they are just the only option that makes large profits for big business. Home turbines may be ineffective, but I am very hopeful about the prospects for mid-scale, vertical axis turbines such as the one approved at Caroline Hasslet School in Milton Keynes.

These turbines are designed to operate in our lower wind speeds and are much smaller than the giants proposed for Petsoe End and Nun Wood.

Because of this and the fact that they are quiet by design, there are thousands of potential sites for them – including mini-wind farms on the roofs of car parks and office blocks where they would not even be noticed.

We can generate electricity from wind without having to destroy our countryside and the living environment of local residents, so why not pursue acceptable solutions instead of trying to force unacceptable ones on unsurprisingly unwilling residents?

Brian Skittrall
BLOT (Bozeat and Lavendon Oppose the Turbine) Chairman

Thanks for the spotlight

MILTON KEYNES ROYAL VISIT 2007

WIN TICKETS TO SEE HRH

MK NEWS has 1,000 tickets to give away to watch The Queen officially open MK Dons stadium.

One thousand lucky locals will get the chance to sit in the stadium and watch not only Her Majesty and Prince Phillip but also the spectacular show put on by thousands of city schoolchildren and community groups on the pitch.

These tickets are being given away FREE in pairs to the FIRST 500 people that contact MK NEWS through the official channels.

It is set to be an historic day for Milton Keynes and an opportunity not to be missed.

HOW TO APPLY

For security reasons a name and full postal address and daytime telephone number for each PAIR of tickets is needed, so you need to be aware that if you don't want your details passed on then we cannot issue tickets.

Those applying also need to ask whether spaces for a wheelchair are required.

No public parking will be available on the site on the day but Milton Keynes Council envisages a park and ride from MK Bowl being put in place.

Tickets will be sent directly to you, there will be no pick ups.

Details given will be held on file by MK Dons and occasionally carefully selected information which may be of interest to MK Dons Season Ticket holders will be sent to you.

Please state if you would prefer not to receive postal mailings.

Your data will not be sold or passed onto any third parties.

Send your details on a postcard to MK NEWS, The Queen Visit, 1 Diamond Crescent, Fox Milne, MK15 ODU.

■ YOU can keep up to date with all the news in the run up to the big day by reading MK NEWS each Wednesday or by logging on to www.mk-news.co.uk and clicking on our Royal Visit page.

Queen happy to visit but don't bank on city status

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

THE Queen has told MK NEWS she is looking forward to visiting Milton Keynes.

This newspaper wrote an open letter to Her Majesty on behalf of the people of Milton Keynes welcoming the news of her visit on November 29 and calling on her to finally grant us city status.

In a reply from Buckingham Palace received on Thursday, The Queen's assistant private secretary, Doug King, wrote: 'The Queen has asked me to thank you for your letter.

'I must say that grants of city status are only made following a national competition, usually to mark significant Royal anniversaries, and there are no plans to hold such a competition in the immediate future.

'I am sorry to send you a disappointing reply but Her Majesty is very much looking forward to visiting Milton Keynes and has asked me to send you her best wishes.'

Meanwhile councillors discussed the cost of the royal visit at a meeting of the Cabinet last night.

The agenda recommended £40,000 be set aside for the visit, from the Strategic Projects Fund.

Milton Keynes Council has designed a programme of events for the day which it says will: 'portray the development of Milton Keynes and its future aspirations; the mix of cultures evident in the town; the importance of the voluntary and community groups in promoting community development; and the youthful population of the town.'

Her Majesty meets the crowd during her last visit to MK in 1992

The council has confirmed that the visit will last two hours and include the openings of the Hub, the stadiummk and the new St John's Ambulance Centre at Greenleys.

The stadium mk event is shaping up to be the show piece, with nearly 8,000 schoolchildren and hundreds of musicians and choristers involved.

It will include an exhibition to demonstrate the range of the home-grown voluntary sector.

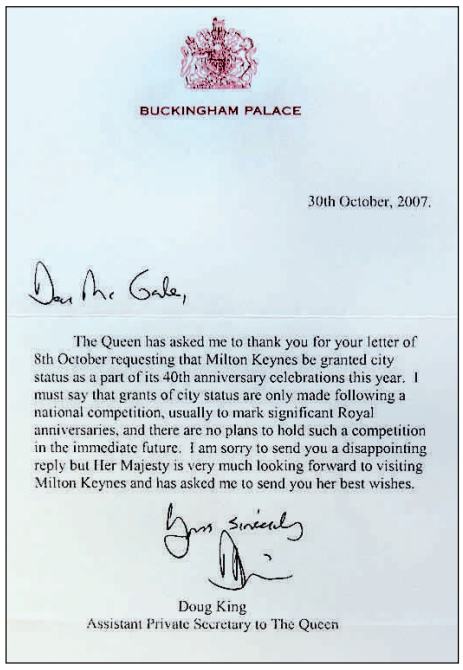
A second exhibition at the Ramada Encore Hotel will showcase the development of Milton Keynes and the vision for the future.

Top events planners have been hired to coordinate the event including Executive Producer Gavin Anderson.

Artistic Director Michael Birch has already visited 60 schools to gather support from children and teachers for the stadium event.

The council will seek sponsorship and income opportunities to reduce strain on the public purse and stated that £40,000 would prevent the costs falling on the tax payer.

It hailed the event as "a major landmark in the development and national profile of the city."



BUCKINGHAM PALACE

30th October, 2007.

Dear Mr Gale,

The Queen has asked me to thank you for your letter of 8th October requesting that Milton Keynes be granted city status as a part of its 40th anniversary celebrations this year. I must say that grants of city status are only made following a national competition, usually to mark significant Royal anniversaries, and there are no plans to hold such a competition in the immediate future. I am sorry to send you a disappointing reply but Her Majesty is very much looking forward to visiting Milton Keynes and has asked me to send you her best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Doug King

DAVID FOSTER

Green spaces will grow for everyone's benefit

Our occasional series of columns continues this week with the thoughts of Park Trust chief executive David Foster

THERE'S no doubt in my mind that people in Milton Keynes love their parks and open spaces.

The huge response to the Channel 4 Relocation programme from the city showed that even those that rarely go out and use the parks still love the fact that there's lots of greenery and feel that it provides a fantastic setting in which to live and work.

How sad it is then that most people I speak to assume that as the city expands there'll be less green space in the future.

Here at The Parks Trust we're far more optimistic about the future greenspace in our city.

Our unique approach to landscape management, our experience and expertise is being used to help design and create the new green spaces in Milton Keynes.

New parks will be connected up to our existing parks and footpath networks.

It seems common sense, and thankfully most of the city's planners and developers agree, that these new parks will be handed over to The Parks Trust to manage along with our existing 4,500 acres of woodland, lakes, parks and grid road landscapes.

> We've developed a Green Estate Strategy, essentially a ten year vision and three year action plan to keep us on track. What is more, we're striving constantly to raise our standards further, provide more facilities and interest for park users, increase biodiversity, raise awareness and understanding of the parks and respond positively to the changing needs of a rapidly growing city

This is the best way to ensure they'll be kept in good condition forever without being a burden to the taxpayer.

As the Trust is entirely independent of the council and self-financing, through our commercial property and investments, we're able to maintain our land at no cost to Milton Keynes' residents and remain focused solely on maintaining and creating inspirational landscapes for everyone to enjoy.

We not only care for and protect the city's green spaces, but enhance their interest and value for people and wildlife wherever we have the opportunity.

We organise over 200 events each year, including community events, charity fundraising events and guided walks. Almost 200 volunteers help us to look after the city's parks and wildlife and we have a dedicated education team working to introduce school children to the wonder of nature and the city around them.

By anybody's standards we're doing a good job, but there's still plenty more for us to do and areas we can improve.

We've developed a Green Estate Strategy, essentially a ten year vision and three year action plan to keep us on track. What is more, we're striving constantly to raise our standards further, provide more facilities and interest for park users, increase biodiversity, raise awareness and understanding of the parks and respond positively to the changing needs of a rapidly growing city.

Above all, we want our parks to continue to be a key factor in the city's future success and that they grow with the city for the enjoyment and benefit of all.

If anyone would like further information on our Green Estate Strategy or the work of The Parks Trust they should visit our website on www.theparkstrust.com.

Winter wonderland

IT'S officially Christmas at thecentre:mk.
The shopping centre unveiled this year's spectacular festive display in Middleton Hall yesterday.
The theme is based on the classic children's book The Wind in the Willows.
Father Christmas and his reindeer made an early appearance too to thrill the crowds young and old.

Fireworks party goes with a bang

THOUSANDS turned out for the traditional firework extravaganza presented by Keith Emmett & Sons and supported by MK NEWS at Campbell Park on Sunday.
As well as the fireworks there was plenty of fun to be had at the popular funfair.
As our pictures show the event proved to be as spectacular as ever.

London calling lures our cops

GAPS are appearing in the city's police force as experienced officers are poached by forces in London and abroad who offer better pay and nicer weather.

Milton Keynes' former Commander, Chief Superintendent John Liversidge, revealed his concerns following his final Police Authority Committee meeting last Monday.

He told the committee that over the last year Milton Keynes police has lost 11 officers to the Metropolitan Police, three officers to Western Australia and two to the Caymen Islands.

Chief Supt Liversidge said: "We're losing good experienced officers to another force and there's a skills gap because the new officers are still learning their trade.

"With faster trains now you can be in London in an hour with a significant pay rise and it's hurting us.

"Milton Keynes is suffering more now and the numbers continue to grow.

"We train people and then they either move north, where there's a lower cost of living or to the Met, where there's a significant pay rise.

"You can't blame them."

Supt Liversidge paid tribute to his staff before leaving Milton Keynes to become Head of Crime Support at Thames Valley Police headquarters.

Superintendent Andy Taylor became acting Milton Keynes BCU Commander on Monday.

Supt Taylor said: "We will not always get it right and you will not always like what we do, but as we continue to roll out neighbourhood policing, you should begin to have a greater say in how we deliver policing to your communities."

Who will deal with your affairs and welfare if you can't? Don't lose your right to choose your Attorney by waiting until its too late.

From the 1st October 2007 the Enduring Power of Attorney (EPA) has been replaced with a revised type of power called a Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA). However, EPAs made prior to 1 October will continue to be valid.

The LPA has now replaced the EPA as one of the most important legal protection mechanisms for your future. Indeed having an LPA in place is just as important as making a Will because it affects you during your lifetime. The benefit of the LPA is that it will allow you and your family the certainty of knowing who will deal with your affairs and personal welfare if you become incapable of making decisions about these things yourself. Moreover, you will have the comfort of knowing that the Attorney dealing with your affairs is the person of your choice and not someone whom the Court chooses to appoint on your behalf.

Unlike the EPA, an LPA will need to be registered with the Court of Protection before it may be used by your attorney(s).

A person can make two types of LPA, one dealing with financial matters which enables your Attorney to act on your behalf in relation to your financial affairs (as do EPAs) and one concerning personal welfare.

A Property and Affairs Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) allows you to plan ahead by choosing one or more people to make decisions on your behalf regarding your property and financial affairs.

You can appoint a property and affairs Attorney to manage your finances and property whilst you still have capacity as well as when you lack capacity. For example, it may be easier for you to give someone the power to carry out tasks such as paying your bills if you find it difficult to get about. Please note that the document has to be registered before it can be used.

A Personal Welfare Lasting Power of Attorney allows you to plan ahead by choosing one or more people to make decisions on your behalf regarding your personal healthcare and welfare.

As you can see the protection offered by an LPA can be invaluable. Please contact us today to see how we can help.

RnB nursery rhymes hit a bum note on TV

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

A SCHOOL chef was flame-grilled in the Dragons' Den after trying to sell his music business.

Amateur RnB vocalist Eddie Anderson, of Albert Street, Bletchley, bravely faced businessmen on BBC 2's hit programme, screened last Tuesday night.

The show is designed for entrepreneurs to present their product in an effort to win thousands of pounds of investment from the Dragons.

Eddie originally reinvented a compilation of traditional nursery rhymes for his two-year-old son but word of his music spread from Shenley Brook End school, where he works as a chef.

Copies of the album, RnB Nursery Rhymes, sold out on the singer's website after it proved to be popular with parents across Milton Keynes.

Eddie performed his RnB version of 'Miss Polly Had A Dolly' but it was not enough to win over the Dragons.

One said: "I like the concept but you're not going to make a living from it."

After the show, Eddie, 32, said: "It was a good experience.

"I knew my figures and I was confident enough so I just did my thing.

"I had them all standing up in a line, clapping along to 'If You're Happy and You Know It'!

"They just didn't think there was enough money in it for them."

For more information or to buy a copy of the cd visit www.rnbnurseryrhymes.co.uk.

Elderly mother took control of her life by killing herself

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

THE son of an 89-year-old who hanged herself believes she would still be alive if euthanasia were legal.

He said his mother took her life as she was anxious she would become a burden on the family.

Violet Brooks, known by her middle name Barbara, was found in the communal lounge of her sheltered accommodation in Fenny Stratford by another resident on May 13.

She died in the early morning at Durrans House, Church Street after she hanged herself from a fire door, using the cord from her purple dressing gown.

During the inquest into her death on Monday her son, David Brooks, said: "The fundamental thing about our mother was that she had an unbelievable fear of not being able to look after herself.

"She certainly didn't want to be a burden to the family."

He said her health had been deteriorating and she was worried about suffering like her father who died from cancer.

Her husband, a retired police officer, also died when she was 70.

"If euthanasia was legal I believe that she would have made that request and, up until then she would have had a fairly stable life as she would have known she would have been able to make that decision."

"She wanted to be in control."

"I believe if euthanasia was legal in this country she would still be alive today."

Mrs Brooks, who was born in Hanover Square, London in 1917, suffered mental health problems during the 12 years leading to her death.

During that time she tried to commit suicide three times, the first in December 1996 when she took an overdose and was admitted to the elderly care ward at Milton Keynes Hospital for almost a month.

Her second son, Geoffrey said the sights she saw on this ward contributed to her anxiety over becoming ill.

Dr Abdul Razzak, consultant psychologist who treated Mrs Brooks, said this was one of her biggest concerns.

"She always said she didn't want to be a vegetable," he said.

"She said if she should be at that stage she should be put down."

Mrs Brooks' family said she was a bubbly, happy person who was the life and soul of any family gathering.

"The only reason she was depressed was because of this," said David.

"She was a party animal, it was almost embarrassing really."

Lynn Maudsley, resident of Durrans House, said: "Barbara was a lovely lady.

"She was a gifted lady, she did a lot of craft work.

"I became very fond of her."

Coroner Rodney Corner concluded: "I believe she thought if she got any older she may not be able to make the decision.

"I think she reached the time in her own mind where she didn't want to go on.

"This was a clear and unequivocal statement of how she wanted to do things."

Verdict: Mrs Brooks died from asphyxia due to hanging by a dressing gown cord.

Natalie's The Lion Queen

A LITTLE girl from Eaglestone has beaten off stiff competition to win a part in the award-winning West End production of The Lion King.

Ten-year-old Natalie Kassanga went up against more than 2,500 other hopefuls to win the part of Nala.

The tiny vocal sensation was discovered by MKVibe, which hailed her a dead cert for fame immediately.

She recently sang Whitney Houston's 'I Will Always Love You' and Mariah Carey's 'Think Twice' to a crowd of hundreds outside Xscape.

Natalie was picked from nine finalists on Friday and will begin a gruelling rehearsal schedule this week.

The Falconhurst School pupil will take to the stage in December.

Until then she will rehearse three times a week.

Natalie said: "I thought I wouldn't even get through, I am so happy.

"When I got the part I felt really really really happy and really proud of myself.

"We did some funny Lion King dancing – dancing, singing and acting.

"In The Lion King Nala is Simba's bestest friend."

MKVibe manager Andy Jones said: "This big break is what she has been looking for.

"We all knew Natalie was a star from the moment she joined MKVibe and now this opportunity is simply a dream start to a successful career ahead of her - she really is one to watch for the future and imagine her name will be in lights very soon."

Despite her break into one of the biggest musicals on the West End, Natalie is determined to stay loyal to MKVibe and will join the team this Saturday at Bletchley Arms from 12 midday for part of their pubs tour.

To hear Natalie's voice, visit www.mkvibe.com.

All funds raised will go towards health and leisure facilities at Lovat Fields Village for the elderly

Charity's inventive way to fundraise

CAN you grow £50 to £50,000?

The ExtraCare Charitable Trust is putting the fun back into fundraising, running a unique challenge which can be enjoyed right here in MK – bankers, bakers, school kids and solicitors can all join in.

The charity, which is fundraising for older people across the city is offering £50 to 50 organisations in Milton Keynes, with the challenge of growing the money to see who makes the most.

Sponsored by NatWest Bank, the challenge offers an exciting mystery prize for the most ingenious fundraising plan and a fabulous trophy, donated by Arthur Price of England for the winning sum raised.

MK NEWS is offering a special prize to the school which brings in the most money from the challenge.

Proceeds will help fund health and leisure facilities at ExtraCare's new Lovat Fields Village which is already offering life-changing opportunities for over 500 older people across the city.

The competition is free to enter and team numbers can be any size.

Only one £50 'stake' per organisation. The £50 and monies raised has to be returned to The ExtraCare Charitable Trust at the end of the competition.

The challenge runs from January 1 to March 28, 2008.

All entries have to be in by December 7.

Organiser, ExtraCare's Ann Allen says the challenge brings the community together for its older citizens: "Whether you have a dressing up day at work or school, try a sponsored hitch to Barcelona, go scuba diving with sharks, or donate your Christmas fund to the cause, the money will be a real boost for older, isolated people cross the city.

"As long as it's legal – you can raise it – and the fun is seeing who can raise the most!"

To spur on your entry, MK NEWS is giving away free tickets for the 'drive of your life' at MK's Daytona Karting Circuit. A number of karting tickets will be given to the first FOUR teams entering the Challenge.

Karting tickets are only available to challenge participants over the age of 16. Winning entries under that age will receive tickets for an activity at Xscape.

Just complete the coupon, left, by December 1 and send it to MK NEWS, 1 Diamond Court, Fox Milne, MK15 ODU.

Inquest into death crash begins

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

Collision: Carmino's Mercedes Sprinter went into the Travis Perkins building, below

AN inquest has been opened into the death of a van driver who was killed when his vehicle crashed into a builders merchants.

Carmino Colucci, 47, of Brooklands Road, Bletchley, was driving a Cory Environmental rubbish van when it hit the Travis Perkins building on Simpson Road, Fenny Stratford, at 7.15am on Thursday October 25.

The inquest, held last Wednesday (October 31), heard that Mr Colucci suffered some kind of medical event and fell sideways across the passenger seat.

His green Mercedes Sprinter van veered off the road and into the corner of the building.

Two fire crews attended from Bletchley and Great Holm to cut Mr Colucci free while paramedics treated him.

However, Mr Colucci was pronounced dead at Milton Keynes Hospital later that day.

A post mortem has taken place to establish whether Mr Colucci was killed by a heart attack or the impact of the collision.

A passenger was also taken to hospital, suffering from minor injuries.

Mr Colucci was born in a small town near Naples, Italy, and moved to Milton Keynes nearly 40 years ago when he was seven.

He is survived by his mother, two sisters, ex-wife and eight-year-old son.

The inquest was adjourned until February.

Bouncers cleared over Oceana clubber's death

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

EIGHT bouncers have been cleared by police after a man died while celebrating his birthday at a city nightclub

Simon McCarthy (pictured), from Langford, Bedfordshire, was celebrating his 35th birthday at Oceana, at the Xscape in the city centre, before he became involved in an altercation which started inside the club.

Police officers were called to the nightclub at about 3am on Saturday, February 24, following reports that Mr McCarthy had stopped breathing.

The officers tried to resuscitate him until paramedics arrived and he was taken to Milton Keynes hospital, where he was pronounced dead an hour later.

Nine door men were arrested and police questioned clubbers at the scene.

One of the men was cleared earlier this year and the rest have now been told they do not need to return to Milton Keynes Police Station and their bail has been cancelled.

Police said the criminal investigation has been concluded but an inquest into Mr McCarthy's death is due to take place at the end of the month.

Praying for a silent night this xmas

BY LAURA HANNAM
laura.hannam@mk-news.co.uk

IMAGINE hearing a ringing noise that fills your head every time you wake up and could last all day.

This is what a man from Bletchley suffers from and he is called for more funding to help treat the condition.

Tony Antoniou-Savva, 42, began hearing a buzzing noise in his ears two years ago and was diagnosed with Tinnitus.

The self-employed businessman, from Park Gardens, has sometimes been reduced to tears by the symptoms.

Although there are good days when he doesn't hear the buzzing until it is time to sleep, Tinnitus has changed Mr Savva's life.

"I often get very, very depressed. I even took to drinking heavily just to knock myself out so I could sleep," he said.

"I've become more snappy, argumentative and very moody.

"When I've got Tinnitus, I can't be bothered with anything.

"I've read stories of people who have committed suicide as a result of Tinnitus, and I can relate to that. I know how they felt."

> There should be much more research to find treatments for Tinnitus
> – Tony Antoniou-Savva

Mr Savva, who owns a second hand shop in Bletchley, has tried everything to relieve the symptoms including hearing aids, white noise generators, an electric bed, a mouth guard, reflexology, acupuncture and hypnotherapy.

Nothing has worked but he hasn't given up hope for treatment, believing that further research could lead to a cure.

"Not enough people know about it, although a surprising number of people seem to be suffering from Tinnitus," he said.

"My mum has it, two of my uncles have it and one of my delivery guys has it as well.

"And I didn't even know till I got Tinnitus and started talking to people about it.

"Even the doctors and nurses don't seem to know a lot about it," he added.

"There should be much more research to find treatments for Tinnitus."

It is estimated that Tinnitus affects over 4.7 million people in the UK.

To find out more about the condition visit www.tinnitus-research.org or call 0115 925 4065.

Premiership style at the stadium mk

A SPARKLY, swanky Christmas bash is bringing a touch of magic to the festive season this year.

Christmas:MK is transforming the stadium mk's arena into a spectacular wonderland for the festive season.

It's a do with a difference, and party-goers can expect a whole new world of chic lighting, stylish decor and a luxurious atmosphere.

The team working on the event have touched some of the world's biggest parties including Paul McCartney's wedding, David Beckam's 2002 World Cup Party and concerts for stars such as Charlotte Church and Led Zeppelin.

The interior designers recently worked on John Terry's wedding and Elton John's Aids Foundation White Tie and Tiara Ball, the lighting was used on Take That's stage, and the sound team has just finished working with Prince at the O2 Arena.

On arriving visitors will be treated to a drink in the beautifully lit reception area before dinner is announced.

People will be taken through to the breath-taking dining and party area where you can pick up a selection of bowl food and desserts from the themed food village.

Internationally renowned funk and soul band The Commitments will play live to help you party the night away along with city celebrity DJ Trevor Marshall.

Choose between the casino tables, interactive games, a chequerboard dancefloor or dodgems for some fun.

The bowl foods - available from stations within the food village - will include options from Fuel Brittania, Wok 'n' Roll, And So To Med, and The Calorie Counter.

David Bowen - MD of Carte Blanche Events and Clarendons Caterers - and his team, have put together a star-studded, award winning cast and crew to create the magic of Christmas:MK.

He said: "It's fast food, bowl food, so you get it quickly and it's very fresh. The smaller portions mean you can try lots of different things.

"We've been doing this for years, it's what we do.

"The idea is to produce something different using suppliers who are at the top of their game.

"There's 3,500m2 of new space that no one will ever have been in before, and we can ever been in before. It's effectively a shell, and what we can do with it is quite stunning.

"Even the toilets have won awards.

"The focus is always on quality and price."

Drinks will be sensibily priced, with a choice of six house wines at £14 a bottle.

There will even be a dedicated cocktail bar with professionals serving up festive drinks.

Parties run from November 30 until December 15, with both shared parties and exclusive hire available for a minimum of 500 people. Tickets for shared party nights start at £50 plus VAT.

Gran's sudden death after holiday

A GRANDMOTHER died suddenly after returning from holiday in Jamaica.

Forty-eight-year-old Debra Lee, known as Debbie, from Fishermead, died last Thursday at Milton Keynes Hospital.

An inquest opened yesterday heard that she had recently returned from a two-week break in Jamaica with her husband Colin.

Mr Lee said they both suffered from the long flight home on October 15, which was delayed as the crew were having trouble with a passenger.

"The pilot turned round and the passenger was ejected at Shannon airport in Ireland and arrested," he said.

"It put an extra four hours on the flight. The flight was too long."

Mrs Lee, from Kernow Crescent, Fishermead, returned straight to work the next day despite having jet lag.

She worked as a receptionist at the Royal Mail centre on Dawson Road, Bletchley

Shortly after she complained of suffering from shortness of breath and flu-like symptoms.

Last week she travelled down to London from Monday to Thursday for a training course.

"She didn't like the stress and the strain of travelling backwards and forwards to London, she hated the tubes, so she was very distressed." said Colin.

Debra Lee with nine year old grandchild Louise

"She came home short of breath each evening.

"She had terrible rasping."

Finally on Thursday evening the symptoms became worse while the couple were watching television and she collapsed.

She was taken to hospital, but doctors were unable to resuscitate her.

The cause of her death is currently unknown.

"We just don't know. One minute we were watching the telly, next minute I'm calling an ambulance and she's dead," said Mr Lee

"She had just finished training, had just finished her last exam, and was quite looking forward to getting back to her job the next morning."

Mr Lee added: "She was lovely, that's all I can say.

"She was friendly, that was why she did so well at her job, everybody loved her."

Mrs Lee, who was born in Swindon, leaves behind two children and four grandchildren.

Her daughter, Angie Simpson said: "She was a brilliant granny, baking cakes with them and all that sort of thing."

Mrs Lee's funeral will take place on Friday November 9 at Crownhill Crematorium at 10:30am.

As a mark of respect, all mourners will be wearing something purple as this was her favourite colour.

The full inquest was adjourned until December.

FREEDOM4 all with free laptop scheme

BY ALICIA BABAEE
alicia.babaee@mk-news.co.uk

LAPTOPS are being handed out to pupils from Bletchley as part of an initiative to bridge the city's digital divide.

The ground-breaking scheme is designed to give the pupils and their families internet access from home via the wireless laptops.

It is hoped it will improve educational achievement by allowing youngsters to improve their skills at home, while family members will be able to participate in adult learning courses in ICT.

Each term up to 60 pupils will be selected to participate in the scheme, funded by Milton Keynes Local Authority.

At the end of the term the equipment will be distributed to a different set of pupils.

It is one of the first such projects in the country bringing high-speed broadband services to students using a WiMAX system which is a long range form of wireless transmission.

Leon School & Sports College on the Lakes Estate has been working in partnership with Knowles Nursery, Infant and Junior schools, Eaton Mill Primary, Drayton Park Primary and Water Hall Primary, to initiate the scheme.

Gary Wakefield, deputy head at Leon School and Sports College, said: "We have truly demonstrated what is possible when schools work as a partnership and today's launch allows us to see the positive outcomes.

"We are concerned about the digital divide that exists in Milton Keynes and this project is helping to promote opportunities for learning that might not have previously existed."

ConnectMK Ltd has agreed to provide the first line of support while FREEDOM4 – formerly Pipex wireless – has agreed to supply the WiMAX receiving technology to deliver the broadband service.

Steven Jewell, managing director of ConnectMK Ltd and head of IT and E-government for MK Council, said: "This is a truly exciting initiative and we are really pleased that these organisations and schools have been able to come together to make it happen.

"We hope to see this type of approach repeated many times over."

Bridging the digital divide: Former Mayor Phil Gerrella (l) and Freedom4's Brendan O'Rouke present laptops and wireless broadband connecters to children from Bletchley Schools

Nightclub brawl

A 31-YEAR-OLD man was seriously injured during a fight outside a city centre club.
Police were called to reports of a fight near the Sound Lounge, in Lloyds Court, at 3am on Friday, but the fight was over before they arrived and no one was arrested.
Thirty minutes later a man was discovered unconcious on a bridge over the H5, leading to Conniburrow.
The police were called and the victim was rushed to Milton Keynes Hospital suffering from life-threatening injuries.
Scenes of crime officers carried out a forensic examination of the area on Friday morning.

Albert Hall date for singers

MILTON Keynes Music Service is co-ordinating a massed choir of more than 400 students from Milton Keynes' primary schools to perform at the Albert Hall.
The students will perform on Monday as part of the Schools' Prom organised by Music For Youth
They have been rehearsing 'Kofi's Journey', a specially commissioned piece of music about slavery written by Alan Simmons and which was originally performed at this year's Primary Music Festival at Milton Keynes Theatre, organised by Milton Keynes Music Service.

Cop shop closed

Blanc chooses MK for his seventh brasserie

Cheers: Raymond Blanc, pictured above, outside his Brasserie Blanc in Leeds

rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

A TOP French brasserie and bar is set to open in the city centre at the end of the month.

Celebrated chef Raymond Blanc OBE will launch his seventh Brasserie Blanc, at The Hub on November 28.

The 120-cover brasserie, in the Central Piazza at Chelsea House, Avebury Boulevard, will have a warm, welcoming and stylish interior with banquette seating and terrace tables outside in the warmer months.

It will include Raymond Blanc's first 'Maman Blanc' shop, offering a wide range of products including high-quality prepared dishes for customers to take home.

Everything will be made on site, including the freshly-baked bread, croissants, patisserie and viennoiserie that will also feature on the breakfast/brunch menu.

In the evening the shop will transform into a private dining room, seating up to 12 guests.

Raymond Blanc is widely acknowledged as one of the world's finest chefs and has just completed the critically acclaimed BBC television series 'The Restaurant'.

Raymond said: "Milton Keynes is a wonderful example of a new town with a thriving business community.

"In an area so rich in high quality producers and growers, I am very keen to add ingredients of local provenance to my menu."

The menu offers a selection of classic and modern French dishes inspired by childhood meals cooked by his mother, including crispy St Loup's goats cheese parcel, tomato chutney, grilled haddock, soft poached egg, mustard butter sauce and orange and sultana rice pudding, poached pear, Grand Marnier Sauce.

The Brasserie Blanc team are currently meeting with local suppliers around the county to add a Buckinghamshire flavour to the menu.

The Dine with Wine menu offers a two course lunch or dinner – £11.50 lunch/£15 dinner – and includes a glass of wine.

The Brasserie will be open from 10am to 10pm for breakfast, brunch, lunch and dinner.

House builders should have known better

rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

TWO housing firms have been fined after fly-posting in Milton Keynes.

Persimmon Homes and Bloor Homes were convicted of the offences at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court last Friday.

Council officers found signs by Persimmon Homes, based at Waterside Road in Northampton, spread across eight locations on roundabouts and lampposts, on March 30.

The signs advertised a show home launch in Oxley Park.

Juliette Halka, for the company, said: "This was an isolated incident and came about because of an inexperienced sales manager.

"They're not a rogue outfit – they've been building houses in Milton Keynes for some time."

But magistrates had little sympathy, telling the company they should know the regulations, before handing them fines and costs totalling £9,600.

The council also took legal action against Bloor Homes, whose fines were also reduced following an early guilty plea.

On March 15 it was reported to the Safer Communities Unit (SCU) that a number of signs, advertising Bloor Homes' 'Treetops' development in Wolverton had been put up on Queen Eleanor Street, Stony Stratford, and on Stratford Road, Wolverton Mill.

Eight signs were found in total and Bloor Homes, were fined a total £1,800 for each offence of fly-posting, equalling a total of £12,600 plus more than £700 in costs.

School's music lesson doubles up as history

THE city orchestra has been entertaining children as part of Black History Month.

Youngsters at Moorlands Family Centre and First School in Beanhill played African percussion instruments and were treated to magical tales from local storyteller and artist Yaw Asiyama, originally from Ghana.

Milton Keynes City Orchestra organised the community-based education programme with support from the Local Network Fund which is administered by the Milton Keynes Community Foundation.

Organiser Jackie Allen said: "Our outreach work in Milton Keynes is largely unheard of and yet we have been able to bring live music making to every level within the community.

"We work hard to identify the most needy sectors of the community, to bring the music closer to everyday situations in addition to the loyal and wonderful following of established patrons, music lovers and theatre goers."

Kids are the key to recycling boom

Recyling facility: Former Lib Dem leader Sir Menzies Campbell is shown around by site operator Alex Cutts

RECYCLING rates have doubled on many of the city's housing estates, thanks to a campaign to educate parents through their children about the need to cut waste going to landfill.

Over the past year a dedicated team of recycling officers from Milton Keynes Council have been taking part in a whole range of initiatives from attending exhibitions to knocking on doors and sending out guides to explain to residents how to recycle.

One initiative that is proving to be successful is visits to the Materials Recycling Facility at Wolverton by schools located in areas where recycling take up is low.

The idea is to educate the young about the benefits of recycling in the hope the children will take this green message home to their parents.

The Lakes estate – has seen a rise from just five per cent in 2006 to more than ten per cent today.

While other areas with previously poor recycling take-up rates, such as Eaglestone, are up from 15 per cent to 27 per cent, and Conniburrow, up from 15 per cent to 27 per cent, are also getting the waste reduction message.

Council waste education officer Holly Mills is attributing this success to the council's initiative to assist schools with their transport costs.

She said: "Many of the schools in the low recycling areas had never visited the recycling facility due the additional costs of transport for days out, which as every parent knows can quickly add up. The children we really needed to reach with our education programme were being excluded.

"It is really encouraging to see that the enthusiasm the children have for environmental issues when they visit us, is being put into practice once they get home. "

Other education initiatives include:

- Cash for trash – reward scheme for good recyclers
- Kangaroo runs – extra special collections organised in targeted areas
- Recycling champions – scheme to urge non-recyclers to recycle
- Free recycling guides available to residents.

Cllr Douglas McCall, cabinet member responsible for environment, said: "Our whole approach to recycling is being driven by education. "

"By focusing our attention on areas that are struggling to understand the need to recycle we hope to improve the city's recycling rates even further.

"Residents need to understand that it costs them financially if they don't recycle. On average each household in Milton Keynes pays over £25 each in landfill tax alone and this will increase by over £7 next year."

Milton Keynes Council is recycling about 36 per cent of all waste and is one of the leading local authorities for waste reduction.

> Residents need to understand that it costs them financially if they don't recycle. On average each household in Milton Keynes pays over £25 each in landfill tax alone and this will increase by over £7 next year

Audit declares police deliver value for money

POLICING in Milton Keynes provides good value for money according to an independent audit.

Thames Valley Police Authority received the highest rating for its use of resources after the Audit Commission assessed the Authority's arrangements for managing resources during 2006/07.

The Authority is made up of local people, magistrates and councillors who oversee the management of Thames Valley Police Force.

It was given an overall score of four, meaning it performed well above minimum requirements.

Thames Valley Police Authority Chair Christine Weston said: "This underlines that policing in Thames Valley is good value for money and the authority is committed to ensuring that this continues to be the case in the future.

"Our rating reflects the hard work of all those responsible for the finances of Thames Valley Police Authority and I would like to thank them for their hard work throughout the year."

The Authority was rated in five different areas - value for money, financial management, financial reporting, internal control and financial standing.

It received a maximum score of four for financial reporting and financial standing and three for financial management, internal control and value for money.

The Authority is responsible for maintaining an efficient and effective police service, approving and monitoring the annual police budget and setting the police element of the council tax, as well as appointing the Chief Constable, Deputy Chief Constable and Assistant Chief Constables.

Homesure Windows, do it again. Many potential customers are driven from the market place by high pressure sales reps outstaying their welcome in your home, offering you special offers/ discounts if you sign up there and then. This is not the Homesure way. In addition to the normal facility of sending one of our experienced consultants to your home we can now offer our new service, THE QUOTE CLINIC. This enables you to bring your window sizes and styles to us for free on the spot advice, design and quotations. This makes it easier for you to avoid the minefield of wasted evenings and high pressure sales techniques. Homesure has been established in Milton Keynes since 1991, with local offices and an installation depot installing quality UPVc windows and doors, which sets standards above those currently available. For all the right reasons isn't it time you found out why so many people are saying "It's nice to be HOMESURE." pop in for a coffee and a quote.

MK-based world charity celebrates anniversary

rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

WORLD Vision is celebrating 25 successful years in the city it calls home.

The charity will hold a special service of thanksgiving and commitment to celebrate a quarter of a century in the UK.

Staff and supporters of the Christian organisation will gather at Christ the Cornerstone church on Saturday November 10 to recognise how much has been achieved.

When it opened its first office in London in 1982, a dozen committed workers joined the global World Vision partnership and now more than 200 staff work in its headquarters at Fox Milne.

An international aid and development agency, World Vision now has more than 120,000 supporters.

It will celebrate its increasing impact on global poverty reduction music and speeches by representatives from World Vision India and the Evangelical Alliance.

Deputy chief executive Justin Byworth said: "Much has been achieved over the past 25 years. Today there are more children in school, more small businesses up and running and better informed communities in developing countries thanks to the enduring support of the UK public."

The organisation is world-renowned for its efforts during disasters such as the 1984 Ethiopia Famine and the Boxing Day Tsunami in 2005.

World Vision's mission statement is to amplify the voice of the marginalised to those in power and work alongside poor communities as they build a more sustainable secure future.

It has launched the 24 Hour Famine, pioneered the Alternative Gift Catalogue and created huge support for the Make Poverty History campaign.

Children get the message home during the Day of the African Child in Thiet County, South Sudan organised by World Vision

Justin Byworth, who has worked for World Vision for 20 years, said: "We join with churches, schools, local people and governments to fight poverty and its causes.

"It is by connecting people from all over the world that we create real lasting change."

Doc's quick time cancer diagnosis heralded

A DOCTOR at Milton Keynes Hospital has been praised for cutting waiting times after developing a new quick service for cancer patients.

Dr Ravi Madhotra, consultant gastroenterologist, has been shortlisted for a Strategic Health Authority award after introducing a system that refers patients directly from their GP to the hospital for an endoscopy, a test that looks inside the body by using a long flexible tube that can be swallowed.

The Gastroenterologist cancer team, which deals with digestive related cancers such as stomach and pancreas, has created a patient information form for GPs to speed up referrals.

It delivers the fastest ever access to NHS hospital diagnostics for cancer patients in Milton Keynes.

Patient results are now made available on the day so that those with cancer are treated more quickly.

Prior to the rapid access service patients were referred by their GP to the hospital, to be assessed in clinic before being referred for an endoscopy.

Dr Madhotra said: "The innovative 'Straight to Test' upper gastrointestinal cancer assessment service is efficient, safe, and highly cost effective."

Fly-tippers fined

BY ROB GIBSON
rob.gibson@mk-news.co.uk

TWO people have been caught and fined for fly-tipping.

City magistrates heard that Lisa Banks, of Daniels Welch, Coffee Hall, was caught on CCTV fly-tipping.

Checks showed that Banks driver of a Fiat Punto was spotted leaving a bag of rubbish next to a recycling bin in Duncombe Street, Bletchley, in April.

She was sent a fixed penalty notice for £75 but despite receiving a reminder she failed to pay and on Friday she was fined £120 and ordered to pay costs of £200 at Milton Keynes Magistrates' Court, after pleading guilty.

The Safer Communities Unit (SCU) also provided evidence against Keith Doolan, of Bryony Place, Conniburrow, who repeatedly put out black bin bags days before the collection was due.

> Putting your rubbish out early is an offence, pure and simple. Not only is it unsightly, but it also encourages others to behave in an anti-social manner and poses an environmental health risk
> – SCU manager Pete Roberts

Neighbours complained about refuse being put out early in the area.

Cory Environmental waster services and council officers found a black bin bag which had been put outside five days before the next Wednesday collection.

They found correspondence with Mr Doolan's name and address on it but he ignored their warnings when they contacted him.

This time a Fixed Penalty Notice of £100 was issued for failing to produce household waste as prescribed by the local authority.

But he did not pay and was prosecuted under the Environmental Protection act 1990.

Magistrates fined him £200 and ordered to pay more than £500 in costs.

SCU manager Pete Roberts said: "There's no excuse for people to not know which day their rubbish is going to be collected.

"Putting your rubbish out early is an offence, pure and simple.

"Not only is it unsightly, but it also encourages others to behave in an anti-social manner and poses an environmental health risk."

MILTON KEYNES BRASS

Concert at Chrysalis Theatre

Saturday, 7.30pm

A CONCERT is being held on Saturday in support of relationship charity Relate MK.

Milton Keynes Brass, formerly Broseley Brass, is peforming its first show under its new name, designed to better reflect the community it represents.

Concert goers are promised a rich and varied programme including world premiers and a superb guest soloist in the form of virtuoso flautist Jocelyn Campbell.

Money raised will help more couples to undergo relationship counselling, even if they can't afford the full cost.

The concert will take place at the Chrysalis Theatre in Willen Park South at 7.30pm.

MK Brass is the region's premier brass band.

Gwilym Roberts, centre manager for Relate MK, said, "Many people can't afford the full cost of the services we offer. We're so grateful to MK Brass for offering to support our family counselling services.

"Families are where people first learn about relationships. Their experiences shape their relationships throughout their lives."

Milton Keynes Brass chairman Dave Scott said: "Although the band itself is a registered charity it recognises that its services can be helpful to other institutions in attracting audiences to fundraising activities, so we are delighted on this occasion to be able to support Relate MK in this way."

Tickets are £8 or £5 for concessions.

Call 01908 632080 to book.

CALL THE SHOTS

Girls Aloud

SO here's me in my glass house, and I'm chucking stones.

As my huge and loyal army of readers will no doubt both be aware, I can't dance for toffee, but I've seen the video for this song and I'm sure Girls Aloud have been told what they're doing is slow and seductive, but when they do their running-the-fingers-through-the-hair bit it reminds me of a L'Oreal advert.

Anyway, that's not what I'm here for. I review songs, apparently.

The good news is that this is miles better than Sexy! No No No was, although with a title like Call The Shots it's never going to threaten its predecessor for the Most Gratuitous And Excessive Use Of Punctuation In A Single Title Of The Year award, although on the bright side I think Girls Aloud have got that one sewn up already.

While their last single was all over the place musically, lyrically and probably something else ending with ically, this one sticks to the old-fashioned ideas of coming up with a tune and then not trying anything clever with it.

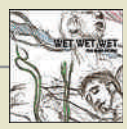
This time round you can actually tell which bits are the verses and which are the choruses.

See, bands like Radiohead get away with doing mad stuff because they think about what they're doing, but for some reason when Girls Aloud do it it feels a bit on the 'committee decision' side.

As pop singles go, this one isn't half bad as it turns out. It's not one of their very best singles, but it's by no means their worst, not so long as efforts like I'll Stand By You remain available to purchase.

TOO MANY PEOPLE

Wet Wet Wet



TO be perfectly honest, I thought they'd gone the way of Brother Beyond but here they are, so I'm led to believe.

I'm all for bands changing and evolving, but this is ridiculous, it doesn't even sound like Wet Wet Wet.

If you can imagine Jamiroquai getting locked in a room with Maroon 5 and being told they can't come out until the two bands have thrashed out a song together, then you can hopefully imagine the outcome.

I can envisage two. One would be Jamiroquai moving heaven and earth to get the job done and be allowed out quick smart, and the other would be this song.

It's the sort of laid-back disco funk-type stuff that Jamiroquai are known for, but with a few Maroon 5-esque riffs thrown in, if you like that sort of thing.

So anyway, remember when I said this didn't sound like Wet Wet Wet? Well, that's mainly because Marti Pellow doesn't sound much like Marti Pellow – it's like somebody's sandpapered all the rough edges off his singing voice, which means that he sounds much better than he did before, which is nice, but there's really not very much here that's new and interesting so at least you'll hear it on the radio.

AMAZING

Seal

I WAS wondering what the video to this one was like, so I tapped into YouTube and found myself watching a short film featuring an aquatic mammal twirling round and delighting onlookers. I should've expected that to be honest, but this song is almost as entertaining as that video.

It's a good old-fashioned pop song like he used to do when he was belting out decent tunes like Crazy rather than horrors like Kiss From A Rose. I'll settle for that.

GLYNDEBOURNE ON TOUR
L'elisir D'amore, Macbeth, Albert Herring
November 6-10
ONE of the world's finest opera companies returns to Milton Keynes with three exceptional productions.
The Glyndbourne Tour opens with a new production of Donizettis comic opera L'elisir d'amore, followed by Verdi's Macbeth and Benjamin Britten's Albert Herring.
Glyndebourne on tour from last week.

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM
November 13-17
NORTHERN Ballet Theatre present a new vibrant adaptation of Shakespeare's much loved story of quarrelling lovers and feuding fairies. David Nixon directs and the production is set to a magical score including Mendelssohn's original ballet music. The sets and costumes capture the mood of the late 1940s.

ROMANTIC COMEDY
November 19-24
STAGE and screen legend Tom Conti stars in this hilarious comedy about love, marriage and fate. His character Jason Carmichael is a dashing and witty Broadway playwright who has just met the love of his life – on the day of his wedding to someone else. Ideal for anyone who has ever fallen in love.

THE LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF NICHOLAS NICKELBY
Parts 1 and 2
November 27-December 1
DAVID Edgar's extraordinary two-part adaptation of Dicken's great comic masterpiece became a landmark production on its RSC premiere. Performed by 27 actors, this new version is presented across two performances,creating an experience of rare scope and genuine scale – a unique theatrical event not to be missed.

THE PITZ — BOX OFFICE 660392

THE Pitz have made an urgent announcement for fans wanting to see Capdown live this week.

The MK punk heroes Capdown were planning to play a special final night as a tribute to The Pitz.

The gig had been scheduled for Friday but because of a mix up over licences the venue has become oversubscribed.

As a result there will now be TWO Capdown gigs, one on Friday and the other on Saturday.

Those who have tickets 1 to 450 will be able to go to the Friday gig and those with 451 and above will be able to attend the Saturday concert.

The Sham 69 concert planned for Saturday has been postponed until a later date.

For further information contact the box office on 660392

THE COMEDY CLUB

@ City Limits, Xscape, Central Milton Keynes
Thursday, November 8

ADAM CROW
A CLEAR candidate for the title of comedian's comedian, Adam Crow has been described by Ricky Gervais as 'really funny' and is a favourite of such diverse luminaries as Griff Rhys Jones, Gloria Hunniford and Dr Fox.

Equally at home as a comedian or compere, Adam will be equally familiar for his dexterity on TV in such varied programmes as The Dream Team (Sky One), Casualty (BBC 1), Trust (ITV), The Leaflet (BBC2), The Bill (ITV and The Real Dating Show (Channel 4) to name but a few.

SUSAN MURRAY
This Black Country lass takes no prisoners with her irreverent and honest humour.

She'll have you laughing well into the next millennium with her razor sharp cynicism.

Funny, cheeky, in your face and sometimes surreal, yet always a bit twisted.

Winner of the first ever Jongleurs competition and a seasoned regular on the circuit, Susan has emerged as one of the best female stand-ups around.

THE RAYMOND & MR TIMPKINS REVUE
THE charismatically-challenged uncle and mute nephew co-operative that is the Raymond and Mr Timkins Revue simply has to be seen to be believed.

It is simply one of the funniest acts of the past 10 years.

Combining inimitable acoustic guitar and stylophone driven rock anthems with a plethora of prop-assisted material and some serial wordplay that would put Stephen Fry to shame, it comes together to create a comic masterpiece.

Together since 1992, their highly original performance approach has made them a rite of passage for students and established them as veterans of Edinburgh, Glastonbury, Phoenix and Reading festivals.

Tickets £12. Members £10. Over 18s only. Waitress service, candle-lit tables. Joke competition with prizes.

Doors open 7.15pm, Show time 8.30pm

Ticket hotline: 01908 295200 or 01908 295201

XSCAPE
MILTON KEYNES

Xscape Milton Keynes are pleased support the 2007 Home Nations Masters Tournament! Milton Keynes' own Paul Ince (MK Dons) has now been confirmed as leading England's Lions in the tournament. Renowned for always coming onto the pitch with his top off, and for turning around the fate of Milton Keynes league-topping football team, "the Guv'nor" will be leading from the front as England battle for Masters glory! The event takes place on Sunday 18th November at the Planet Ice Arena, and Xscape have got 2 family tickets to give away! For all the details, and to enter, visit www.xscape.co.uk

Christmas is Coming!
We're busily preparing for the festive season at Xscape. Each Christmas experience has improved on the last in recent years, and 2007 certainly won't disappoint! With a celebrity Christmas launch in November to get the snowballs rolling, and a great competition with Horizon Radio to win a Smart Car, we've got everything!
As always, it's free to see Santa and his friends at Xscape. He'll be in his sleigh every Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and waiting for you!
As well as free family entertainment, Xscape is your ULTIMATE Christmas Shopping venue, stocking some fantastic urban lifestyle and fashion brands, in our exclusive range of stores.
Check the website for sales and special offers.
If you'd rather see Santa in Alpine surroundings, you can take part in SNO!zone's Sledge with Santa events, which take place throughout December. Just call 01908 680838 and get ready for a real Christmas treat!

Keep up to date with what's going on over Christmas at Xscape by visiting www.xscape.co.uk

GARDENLIFE

Go for Christmas colours

AUTUMN is upon us, evenings are drawing in and the frosts have started.

Trees are at their glorious autumn best just before leaf fall.

The flowering cherries, acers, liquidambers and ash are shimmering reds, oranges and purple. Autumn shrubs like Nandina, Gaultheria, Leucothoe and Callicarpa make up for what they lack in flower with their vivid leaves and berries.

I like to use some small versions of these shrubs to make up planted tubs and hanging baskets in what I call 'Christmas colours', (red, green and white).

They are fairly simple to make but look very effective.

The red can either be a berried pernettya (gaultheria), pansy or miracle cyclamen. Greens are evergreen ferns, ivies, eunonymous and hellebore foliage, and the whites, again cyclamen, hellebores and pansies.

Lead-effect planters look striking with this mix, and either a moss lined basket or natural willow basket looks best.

Don't forget that when you plant up at this time of year the plants will not grow as much as in the summer, so really squash them in to get a full effect.

It's fun to under plant with a few crocus, narcissi or dwarf tulips for a surprise in the spring. These planters should keep going until March.

JOBS FOR NOVEMBER

■ You may get one last cut of the lawn before stowing the mower for winter. Don't forget to use an autumn lawn feed to help form strong roots for next year.
■ Move tender plants into a greenhouse or conservatory. Fleece vulnerable or exposed plants.
■ Line unheated greenhouses with bubble wrap.
■ Finish planting spring bulbs. If you aren't sure where to plant them, plant them in pond baskets, then you can just sink these into the ground when you decide.
■ Clean algae off paths.
■ Put away barbecues and cover patio furniture.
■ Fill gaps with wallflowers for a blaze of spring colour.
■ Plant green manure to improve soil structure. This can be dug back into the soil and really useful for breaking up clay.

BELLA ITALIA

Theatre District
Review by Alicia Babaee

THIS Italian chain has been going for donkey's years.

But every now and then, I find there's an element of comfort in knowing exactly what you're getting.

There's also the fact that the service is usually faultless, and was such even when we visited on a busy Friday night.

When we arrived we ordered some delicious olives marinated in basil, garlic and coriander (£1.75) and garlic ciabatta with melted mozzarella (£3.50) while we mused over the menu.

We couldn't decide what to start with, so our waiter recommended the Selezione Grande platter (£8.95).

It consisted of succulent buffalo wings, smokey barbecue ribs, chicken goujons and onion rings with garlic bread and dips. It was huge and beautifully presented.

For our main course I had the Filetto di Salmone (£9.95) which came in a lemon, butter and white wine sauce served with roasted new potatoes and seasoned spinach.

It was very tasty.

My parter went for a more traditiona pasta dish – Pollo Diavola al Forno (£8.25).

It was spicy pepperoni, chicken, roasted peppers and red onion in a spicy tomato sauce baked in the oven with penne.

He enjoyed it but neither of us could finish our mains – probably because we were determined to keep some space for desserts.

I had the mascarpone cheesecake (£4.25) which was dense and creamy, the cheesecake to beat all cheesecakes, in fact.

My parter can't turn down a chocolate dessert, and had The Godfather (£4.55) – nutty chocolate fudge brownies, vanilla and toffee ice cream with chocolate crunch, chocolate sauce, fresh cream and wafer curls.

It was as chocolatey as you can get, and they even do a version for two at £6.50.

Russell's Love & Relationship Horoscopes

Aries (Mar21-Apr20)
You can make a good impression on a friend or a colleague by sharing your creative ideas and inspirations. If someone takes you up on your offer, you could find yourself organising some kind of group exercise or get together. Call my Aries advice line 09065 504 342 to hear how your natural charm and friendliness will open new doors for you but you will need to curb extravagant spending and why some good news at the weekend will affect the whole family.

Taurus (Apr21-May21)
You are ultra-charismatic this week so all your social and professional activities will boost your popularity with everyone you meet. People will love you not because of your looks or your smart appearance; it's your personality that turns them on. Call my Taurean advice line 09065 504 342 to hear how an unexpected offer means rearranging your schedule or even changing your longer term plans because you won't want to miss this big chance.

Gemini (May22-June21)
You're always ready to lend a helping hand to a friend or colleague in need but is someone imposing on your generous nature? It's not a good time to let others take advantage of you in any way. Call my Gemini advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why there's a lot going on around you and it isn't always easy to concentrate when you have a hundred and one things to do so make a conscious effort to focus on one thing at a time to avoid making careless mistakes.

Cancer (June22-July23)
Meeting others halfway is the key to establishing harmony in all relationships and you may have to be even more considerate than usual when dealing with someone close at the weekend. Call my Cancerian advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why decisions made with a partner will affect your joint long term future and why although some ideas might seem trivial at the time it is attention to these details that will ensure your future success.

Leo (July24-Aug23)
The Sun in the family zone of your chart puts the spotlight on domestic matters. The chance to get someone to agree to plans that are important to you should not be ignored. Others are open to your suggestions and keen to discuss their own ideas. Make the most of this. Call my Leo advice line 09065 504 342 to hear how you'll be easily distracted over the coming week so it may be best to postpone important decisions especially if they involve money.

Virgo (Aug24-Sept23)
A surprise invitation or sudden change of plans could mean a short trip to somewhere new or meeting someone you've never met or dealt with before. Both experiences will be interesting, informative and highly enjoyable. Call my Virgoan advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why your confidence in your own abilities boosts your energy levels so you will be ambitious, determined and successful in whatever you turn your hand to this week.

Libra (Sept24-Oct23)
Try not to build your hopes up too high about anything connected with love or money. The good news is that a dream is about to come true. The bad news: it may not please you as much as expected. Call my Libran line 09065 504 342 to hear how you'll feel uncertain about any proposed changes but deep down you know this is the only way to get ahead. Whatever you do, have faith in yourself and understand that what's going on now is right for you.

Scorpio (Oct24-Nov22)
Some thoughts and ideas you have are too private to discuss with others. Some, you just don't want competitors or rivals to know so you are being sensible, not paranoid, in being ultra cautious Call my Scorpio advice line 09065 504 342 to hear how you've always been good at keeping a secret and even if others are curious and prying you mustn't let slip any inside information that's none of their business no matter how hard they try.

Sagittarius (Nov23-Dec21)
Emotions are generally stable even though a few flare ups might occur on the domestic front. Money is likely to be at the root of any contention. Health concerns at this time might focus on the hair, skin, eyes or teeth. A loved one disappoints you by making what seems like an unwise career decision. Call my Sagittarian advice line 09065 504 342 to hear why personal matters are sure to take up most of your time and attention this week.

Capricorn (Dec22-Jan20)
You're bound to thrive on the friendly and cooperative mood that's all around you now. Group activities and social events offer plenty of opportunities to get involved in community or charity exercises. Call my Capricorn line 09065 504 342 to hear why you will feel drawn to people who put their beliefs and philosophies into practice regardless of what others might think and why you will be reconsidering many of your own views and values.

Aquarius (Jan21-Feb19)
There's a lot happening on the social scene and you are in demand professionally. This might mean delaying domestic plans because you can't be in two places at the same time. Call my Aquarian advice line 09065 504 342 to hear how you will soon be so busy you're likely to take a no frills approach to all you do so you won't waste time experimenting with new ideas preferring to stick to the tried and trusted ways of keeping up with your commitments.

Pisces (Feb20-Mar20)
Although your travel plans may be getting more extravagant than usual, there may still be a way to cut costs. Getting away from your usual surroundings will bring fun and happiness. It would be a shame to turn down an offer because you have commitments elsewhere. You could delegate some responsibilities. Call my Pisces advice line 09065 504 342 to hear how there are some big decisions to make regarding joint assets as the weekends.

Bellway Homes offer affordability at The Observatory in Oakley Vale

House builder Bellway is taking a head-on approach to the affordability crisis by launching a new home purchase scheme called Opening Doors. Bellway will offer customers the chance to buy a new home for 75% of the current market value at The Observatory in Oakley Vale.

As an example Opening Doors will enable a purchaser to buy a new £250,000 home today for the cost of interest payable on a £187,500 home. Payment of interests on the remaining 25% is deferred for three years and is treated as an equity loan charged at the low interest rate of 3%.

Commenting on the scheme, Doreen Pate, Sales and Marketing Director at Bellway, said: "We have looked very carefully at how we can improve the financial situation for new home buyers. Opening Doors is unique in the way that it provides 100% ownership but reduces the cost of borrowing in the early years when most new home owners are more financially stretched."

Opening Doors is available on a selected number of properties at the Observatory development in Corby. A two bedroom home priced at £128,500, will set you back just £96,375 through Bellway's initiative, a three bedroom home at £146,000 will cost just £109,500 while for those wanting to trade up to a four bedroom house at £180,000, the purchaser would pay £135,000.

Oakley Vale is fast becoming the new property hotspot. Located in the Northamptonshire countryside of Rockingham Forest, the development has excellent road links via the A14 to the M1, M6 and A1 making commuting to the major cities easy. Commuters to London can choose from Kettering Station, just 6 miles away, for a regular train service London Euston Station, or equally frequent from Northampton Station to Euston Station and St Pancras Station. In 2008 a new intercity rail link will be re-established in Corby making Oakley Vale even more accessible.

Oakley Vale has an abundance of open green spaces and a man-made lake with an attractive water cascade. It is convenient too as, adjacent to the development is a large supermarket and the new village contains a new parade of shops, a pub and restaurant. September 2008 will also see the opening of the first primary school in the new village.

Bellway Northern Home Counties Sales Director, Chris Edginton, said: "Corby is only an hour away by train via Kettering or Wellingborough from London, and Northamptonshire provides superior choice for businesses, visitors and residents alike. The area is surrounded by beautiful countryside, a rich tradition and heritage and charming stone village. The vast rural landscape is 'quintessentially English' and brimming with character".

Ask about the schemes available to help you move to The Observatory. The showhome is available to view 7 days a week, from 10am to 5pm, telephone 01536 747958 for further information or visit www.bellway.co.uk

Can't get on the property ladder?

Opening Doors is a new and unique scheme by Bellway which gives you the chance to own a brand new home. All you have to do is pay 75% now and then pay back 25%* of the value of the property later.

This is a genuine scheme. The home is 100% yours

*Typical example: Purchase a property valued at £128,500, 75% (£96,375) is payable at the time of purchase. You then pay the other 25% balance at the current market value at the time of repayment which is due on the earlier of sale or remortgage of your home or 10 years from the date of purchase. This is secured by a second mortgage e.g. If the property is sold, or transferred for £150,000 then 25% (£37,500) is payable to Bellway. If the property is sold, or transferred for £100,000 then 25% (£25,000) is payable to Bellway. Interest is payable after 3 years on the initial 25% balance at a rate of 3% which is increased by 3% pa from year 5 onwards e.g. 3%+3%=3.09%. YOUR HOME MAY BE REPOSSESSED IF YOU DO NOT KEEP UP REPAYMENTS ON A MORTGAGE OR OTHER LOAN SECURED ON IT. BE SURE THAT YOU CAN AFFORD THE REPAYMENTS BEFORE ENTERING INTO A CREDIT AGREEMENT. This offer is available on selected plots only – subject to applicant's status. Prices correct at time of going to press. Subject to Bellway's terms and conditions and any loan arrangements must be made through Bellway Financial Services using a Bellway nominated solicitor. Pinnacle tops businesses' 'prestigious' premises list

WHEN selecting new office premises in Milton Keynes, renowned international companies Deloitte & Touche LLP and Denton Wilde Sapte LLP had one fundamental word on their mind – 'prestigious'.

Milton Keynes' newest and largest office development for more than 25 years – The Pinnacle – currently under construction by developer Hampton Brook, is synonymous with this requirement and it is therefore no surprise that both companies agreed to take space before construction had even got off the ground.

Ian Jackson, a director of Hampton Brook, said: "The Pinnacle CMK has been designed to set a standard only matched by office buildings in the Capital - in terms of quality, as well as adopting energy efficient design techniques and technologies - and we are of course delighted to have Deloitte & Touche and Denton Wilde Sapte committed to this 200,000 sq ft landmark building at such an early stage. It is equally rewarding to understand their reasoning behind the decision and for their vision of layout, design, facilities as well as looks to complement our own."

Deloitte & Touche has a long established presence in Central Milton Keynes and Bob Warburton, managing partner finance and legal for Deloitte & Touche, said: "We welcome the opportunity to take a significant amount of space in the prestigious development at The Pinnacle. This will provide excellent accommodation for the Shared Services Centre which delivers key infrastructure support to the UK operation of Deloitte. We have worked with Hampton Brook to accommodate our specific requirements for generous floor plates in this landmark building and look forward to our continuing relationship with Hampton Brook in the delivery of the first class facilities for our people."

David Ribridger, managing partner of the Milton Keynes office, added: "The Pinnacle is an ideal choice for us, providing a prestigious location for the firm and excellent facilities for our staff. We are delighted to be collaborating with Hampton Brook on The Pinnacle as they have a very good reputation in the local area."

Hampton Brook is constructing The Pinnacle – a £60m inward investment – in a joint venture partnership with clients of Goodman Property Investors following the site purchase from English Partnerships. Completion is scheduled for May 2009.

The Pinnacle CMK has been designed to achieve a BRE energy efficient 'excellence' rating, and by adopting design techniques and technologies it will provide for the effective management of energy.

Further opportunities to acquire space at the early stages of marketing are available in suites from approximately 10,000 sq ft upwards. The joint letting agents are Bidwells , tel: 01908 202190 and CBRE , tel: 0207 182 2229.

Christmas award for thecentre:mk

AS thecentre:mk, opened its Christmas display yesterday it was aptly celebrating the win of the International Council of Shopping Centre's Silver Maxi Award for last year's.

Back in July thecentre:mk won a Purple Apple marketing award through the British Council of Shopping Centres (BCSC) for the Believe in the Magic marketing campaign from its Peter Pan Christmas Show.

This win resulted in an automatic qualification into the international competition

Jackie Tracey, events manager at thecentre:mk was invited to the ceremony in New Orleans – a fortnight ago – where she received the award.

She said: "The campaign ran for just over eight weeks and it was highly effective.

"We used a combination of events centred around the Back to Never, Never Land Christmas Show in Middleton Hall, with PR, advertising, promotions and online marketing creating a robust programme of activity to promote the centre to local and out-of-town customers."

The result was a measurable increase in visitors to thecentre:mk, an increase in sales at the end of a challenging year for retailers, plus a record breaking charitable donation to the beneficiaries of the Wishing Pool.

There was also immeasurable positive feedback from visitors to thecentre:mk.

Centre director Robert Goodman says "We are very proud of our achievements and are constantly looking for better and more creative ways of promoting and marketing thecentre:mk and our events to shoppers.

"We warmly welcome visitors to our Wind in the Willows show this year, which is promising to be bigger and better than ever."

The award was within the category of centres with 1,000,000 to 1,399,000 square feet.

Jackie Tracey, events manager at thecentre:mk in New Orleans receiving the International Council of Shopping Centre's Silver Maxi Award

MK wages well below average for rest of UK

PEOPLE in Milton Keynes earn £2,303 less than the average UK salary of £31,290.

Figures from the first Monthly Salary Index published by jobs website AllTheTopBananas.com reveal the average advertised salary in Milton Keynes in the last six months was £28,987.

The website, which carries one in three UK vacancies, analysed 4,782 jobs in Milton Keynes for its first monthly salary index.

In total it looked at more than 600,000 jobs advertised across the UK between April and September this year.

MD Dave Martin said: "It's surprising to see Milton Keynes salaries below the national average, with its high place in the index. As a nation we are incredibly secretive about our salaries, yet love to see how much we earn compared to other people. AllTheTopBananas.com is now making it easy for anyone to see how their salary compares within their county and region, as well as to the national average."

The website collects and displays jobs from hundreds of partner websites across the UK. It has 230,901 jobs currently active.

AllTheTopBananas.com is publishing the Monthly Salary Index as part of its mission to be the most helpful UK jobs search engine.

The full figures can be accessed at www.AllTheTopBananas.com/salary.

Outgoing, persuasive, chatty, organized, fun, talkative, confident, positive, self motivated…..

……these are the kinds of words used to describe our Advertising Sales team here at the MKNEWS (although other words are sometimes used!). If you're outgoing, persuasive and fancy working in a busy but fun media environment this may be the perfect role for you!

Office based

Advertising Sales Advisors

The MK News is part of Iliffe News and Media Ltd and is one of the UK's fastest growing regional newspapers. Having recently moved to new offices next to Willen lake in Milton Keynes we're now looking to recruit two additional Sales Advisors to join our current busy team selling advertising solutions to local businesses.

Sales experience is not necessary (although is always helpful), but a confident and persuasive personality coupled with excellent customer service and administration skills are very important.

These two roles are predominantly office based, and would involve talking to existing and new customers about their marketing and advertising needs both on the telephone and face to face, therefore the ability to cold call is essential..

Candidates need to have an excellent telephone manner and be happy working within small teams and working to deadlines

We offer….

- £12,000 - £15,000 per year basic (dependant on skills and experience)
- Realistic and achievable bonus of £5,000 - £6,000 per year
- 25 days holiday per year
- Regular training and career development
- Contributory Pension and Healthcare after qualifying period

For an informal chat and an application pack please call Hazel Basford, Classified Sales Manager on 01908 242490. Please call during office hours. Alternatively, email your c.v. with a covering letter to hazel.basford@mk-news.co.uk

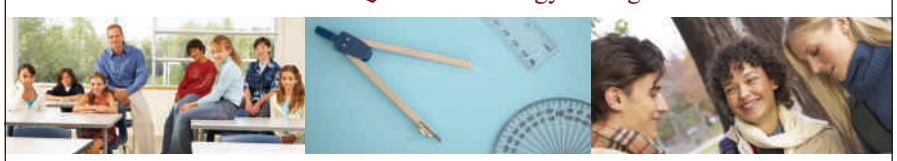
Queensbury School & Technology College



Queensbury is a Foundation School for 13 to 19 year olds (Years 9 to 13). It is currently over-subscribed and has 1250 students of which approximately 350 are part of a very successful Sixth Form. The school genuinely believes that "every child matters" and arranges the curriculum and timetable to allow for increasing personalisation of learning and meaningful progression. The School is also strongly committed to staff development and is currently restructuring to anticipate the future demands of the ever challenging education system. It is therefore seeking an outstanding individual for the following, newly-created post:

BUSINESS MANAGER — Dunstable

Excellent package for the right applicant

Reporting to the Head Teacher, you will be part of the Senior Management (Leadership) Team and responsible for the management and delivery of all non-teaching services within the school. These include Student Services, Personnel, Finance, Premises and Administration. You will have an experienced and dedicated team to support you in ensuring the School's aim of continually raising standards can be pursued effectively and efficiently.

You will have a proven track record in managing multi-disciplined teams in a highly demanding and fast-paced environment. An experienced leader, you will be able to assess and initiate innovative solutions to as yet unforeseen challenges and build a high level of confidence and trust with your colleagues at all levels. With know-how and a can-do approach you will ensure that both every day tasks and new tests for your team are dealt with reliably and efficiently.

The reward and remuneration package will reflect the skills and experience of the successful candidate and will be negotiated individually with him or her.

To apply, please contact Pat Wilson, the Head Teacher's Personal Assistant, for an application form via telephone on 01582 884930 or email: head@queensbury.beds.sch.uk

ICT TEACHER

Required for January, 2008
Part Time or Full Time
Temporary until May 2008

A teacher is required to join a successful ICT Department. We are looking for an ICT specialist who could contribute about 8 hours per week to 'A' and AS Level teaching and who has skills in project management and the use of Adobe Creative Suite 3 (Flash, Fireworks and Dreamweaver). For candidates who are interested in a full time contract we could offer teaching at KS4 on the OCR National Certificate Course.

Applications will be welcome from any graduates who have the necessary ICT skills. A recognized teaching qualification and experience of working in schools would be desirable, but not essential, as full training could be provided.

TEACHER IN CHARGE OF LAW

Required for January, 2008
MPS + TLR 2A
Full or Part Time

We are seeking to appoint a motivated, experienced and enthusiastic individual to co-ordinate and lead a successful department. Our 'A' Level students have achieved outstanding examination results over the past three years. Building on that achievement we are looking for an individual who will assist students to achieve their true potential and exceed their expectations.

The successful applicant will be a graduate, ideally holding a recognised teaching qualification, although full training will be given if they are not yet qualified. They will teach across both AS and A2 programmes. We also welcome applications from newly qualified teachers. The post may be full-time depending on the ability of the successful applicant to offer additional subjects.

The successful applicant will be required to undertake a Criminal Records Bureau Disclosure.

A laptop computer will be made available to the successful candidates for the above posts.

Please telephone Lou Ellis (Headteacher's P.A.) at the school for further details on both posts and an application form.

Closing date: Wednesday 14th November 2007

Redborne is an oversubscribed, successful school that achieves excellent examination results. The school is well regarded and popular, situated in a very pleasant area of Central Bedfordshire, within easy reach of London. About 80% of the Sixth Form go on to University. The school has just had an excellent OFSTED Report and has received the Government Achievement Award, Sports College Status, Training College Status and the Arts Mark Gold Award.

Following our Summer 2007 examination results we have recognised by the Government and awarded High Performing School Status. We have been invited to take up a third specialism which will be Science.

This is an opportunity to join Spurgeons at an exciting time of development in Bedfordshire.

Spurgeons are the managing agency for 6 Children's Centres in Bedfordshire and are committed to delivering a high quality integrated service to children and their families.

We are looking for two highly motivated managers with a professional track record to lead the local delivery of services to children and their families in

- Castle/Newnham Children's Centre – based in the diverse community of Bedford town centre
- Flitwick Children's Centre – serving a rural and commuter town population

As Children's Centre Manager you will manage the delivery, monitoring and evaluation of the core offer, and lead a small team of staff.

- Are you committed to integrated service delivery?
- Are you passionate about outcomes for children?

Then we want to hear from you!

There will be a common application process for both posts, but candidates may wish to express a preference for a particular position.

For further information, please visit our website www.spurgeons.org

Closing date: 23rd November 2007
Interview date: 12th December 2007

English Heritage protects and provides advice on this country's unique legacy of historic buildings, landscapes and archaeological sites. We also manage over 400 sites and welcome in excess of 11 million visitors to these each year.

Facilities Manager

c. £21,000 per annum
Based at Wrest Park, Bedfordshire

In this vital role, you will provide a high quality and comprehensive service to tenants and visitors in the areas of security, maintenance and upkeep for land and buildings at Wrest Park. You will monitor and review re-tendering, appointment and delivery of all service and supply contracts, and develop a programme of planned preventative maintenance. As well as leading a small team, you will take responsibility for all outside contractors, ensuring projects are carried out on time, to budget and to staff expectations. Fully conversant with all Health & Safety legislation, CDM regulations & IOSHH, you will also support the development of the tenancy business.

With a successful background in site maintenance and of managing facilities, building projects and budgets, you will have knowledge of the requirements and statutory responsibilities involved in large scale, capital site development. A confident self-starter, you will work well under pressure and have excellent organisational, communication, influencing, negotiating, PC and MS Office skills. You must be able to respond to call-outs in an emergency. An understanding of conservation issues would be ideal.

To request an electronic application pack, please email midlands.recruit@english-heritage.org.uk quoting reference D/14/07 in the subject box. If you require a hard copy, please telephone 01223 582700 and quote reference D/14/07. Please do not send CVs.

URS

URS requires two software professionals to work as part of the Business Management Solutions department in Bedford. Both roles require an individual with a strong work ethic, the ability to work effectively within a team and excellent communication skills.

Software Developer (Ref.URS 23772)

A software developer is required to support and improve the company's national business management system. The role requires a candidate with strong analytical, problem-solving and development skills. The ability to work effectively resolving issues whilst providing front-line support for system users is essential. A key aspect of the role is to ensure continual improvement of existing content.

Candidates require a strong knowledge of SQL/T-SQL, VB.Net, Visual Studio 2005, html, javascript and ASP.Net AJAX.

Assistant Software Developer (Ref.URS 24034)

The successful candidate will support the department and will have basic knowledge of programming languages, in particular, SQL and VB/VB.Net/VBA. Knowledge of Visual Studio would be advantageous but not essential.

This role would be suitable for someone with basic programming knowledge looking to work within a software development environment.

For further information regarding these posts please contact Alan Potter (Technical Director) on 01234 349641 or e-mail alan_potter@urscorp.com

To apply please log onto www.urscorp.eu/careers and submit your CV details together with your current remuneration package.

Conditions of Advertising LSN Media (the publisher)

GENERAL
1. The publisher reserves the right to omit or suspend any advertisement even though accepted and paid for and to make any alterations necessary to maintain standards of the newspaper. The publisher also declines responsibility for the omission of a single advertisement or one or more of a series of advertisements from any cause whatsoever, nor do they accept liability for any loss or damage caused by an error or inaccuracy in the printing of an advertisement. (Advertisers are advised to check their advertisement after the insertion). No re-insertions refund or adjustment will be made where an error, mis-print or omission does not materially detract from the advertisement. The Publisher may at its sole discretion re-insert the whole or part of the advertisement with corrections or refund part or the whole value of the advertisement.
2. The publisher reserves the right to decline any advertisement without giving an explanation or which they deem the content unsuitable for publication, whether an order has been accepted or not. The publisher will not accept orders for advertisements which it deems offensive or defamatory or which infringe the Trades Description Act 1968 and The British Code of Advertising Standards Authority on such matters.
3. An order for advertising services placed by an advertiser or an advertising agency on behalf of an advertiser constitutes an assurance that necessary authorisation or permission has been granted in respect of the use of the advertisement itself, pictorial representation of a living person, references made and words attributed to a living person and text which may be the subject of copyright protection.
4. Printed conditions on advertisement orders will not be recognised as binding unless expressly accepted in writing by the publishers.
5. Advertising rates involving a series, volume or prepayment discount are expressly for the use of the advertiser concerned and are not to divulged to a third party.
6. All artwork designed by the LSN Studio remains the property of LSN Media. Where artwork services are provided, it is on the understanding that it is for the sole use in any of the LSN Media publications unless prior agreement is sought, any unauthorised reproduction will result in a charge being levied on the publisher concerned.
7. Proofs of advertisements are provided upon request but cannot be guaranteed. Where a proof is supplied, the onus is on the recipient to check that all information is correct and to provide the publisher with any neccesary alterations or amendments before the expiration of the deadline. The publisher will not accept responsibility for errors in any advertisement where a proof is supplied and subsequently authorised for publication.
8. Although every effort will be made to meet advertisers requirements, specified positions cannot be guaranteed within the newspaper.
9. All advertisements which carry a premium telephone number must comply with the Code of Practice of The Independent Committee for the supervision of Standards of Telephone Information Services (CSTIS).
10. The advertiser (or his advertising agency) shall indemnify the publisher in respect of all costs, damages or any other charges as the result of legal action or the threat of legal action arising from the publisher of a single advertisement for a series of advertisements, published in accordance with copy instructions supplied to the publisher in pursuance of the advertiser or his advertising agency's order.
11. If an advertisement does not appear due to copy or artwork being supplied after the agreed deadline, the space will be payable in full at the published rates.
12. A request to insert an advertisement assumes acceptance of our Terms & Conditions of Advertising.

DISTRIBUTION
1. Unless otherwise stated, distribution will normally take place within the specified publication to the individual addresses which usually receive the publication within the area and on the date scheduled. This does not necessarily imply 100% delivery to all addresses within the area.
2. The publisher shall not be liable for total or partial non delivery of any publication in which an advertisement is scheduled to appear and no reinsertion, refund or adjustment will be made to the advertiser.

BOX NUMBERS
While every endeavour will be made to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser as soon as possible, no liability will be accepted by the publisher in respect of any loss, damage or delay in forwarding such replies.

CANCELLATION
1. Cancellation of advertisements must be advised 24 hours prior to the booking deadline. If the publisher is unable to resell the space he reserves the right to charge for any loss of revenue incurred.
2. If any advertiser in receipt of a series, volume or prepayment discount cancels before fulfilling the terms of the agreed order, the publisher reserves the right to make a surcharge up to the full published rates for the type of advertisement.
3. Queries concerning cancelled advertisements must be accompanied by the stop number given at the time of cancellation.

PAYMENT
1. Credit facilities are at the discretion of the publisher, but such facilities are limited to strict terms of 30 days. Late payment of account may lead to suspension of account facilities. Any discount which the publisher may have agreed with the advertiser may be forfeit should the advertiser fail to meet the agreed credit terms.
2. Prepaid accounts must be settled by no later than the two days prior to publication. The publisher reserves the right to suspend any advertisement where payment has not been received.
3. Dishonoured cheques will incur a £20 administration fee. All rates are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time of any advertisement is booked to appear. Recognised advertising agency is 10%

MKMOTORING

New Fiat's price puts it ahead of the chasing pack

MOTORISTS are eagerly awaiting the new Fiat 500, which goes on sale here in the New Year.

With a starting price of just £7,900 OTR, the new Fiat 500 represents outstanding value for money and positions the car well below its benchmark rivals.

At the top end of the range, a highly specified version with a larger engine costs only £10,700 – an OTR price that includes air conditioning and alloy wheels as standard.

Available with a choice of three frugal, ultra-low emissions, Euro 5-ready engines: 69 bhp 1.2-litre and 100 bhp 1.4-litre petrol, or 75 bhp 1.3-litre MultiJet turbodiesel, the new Fiat 500 can be ordered in three different trim levels – Pop, Sport and Lounge.

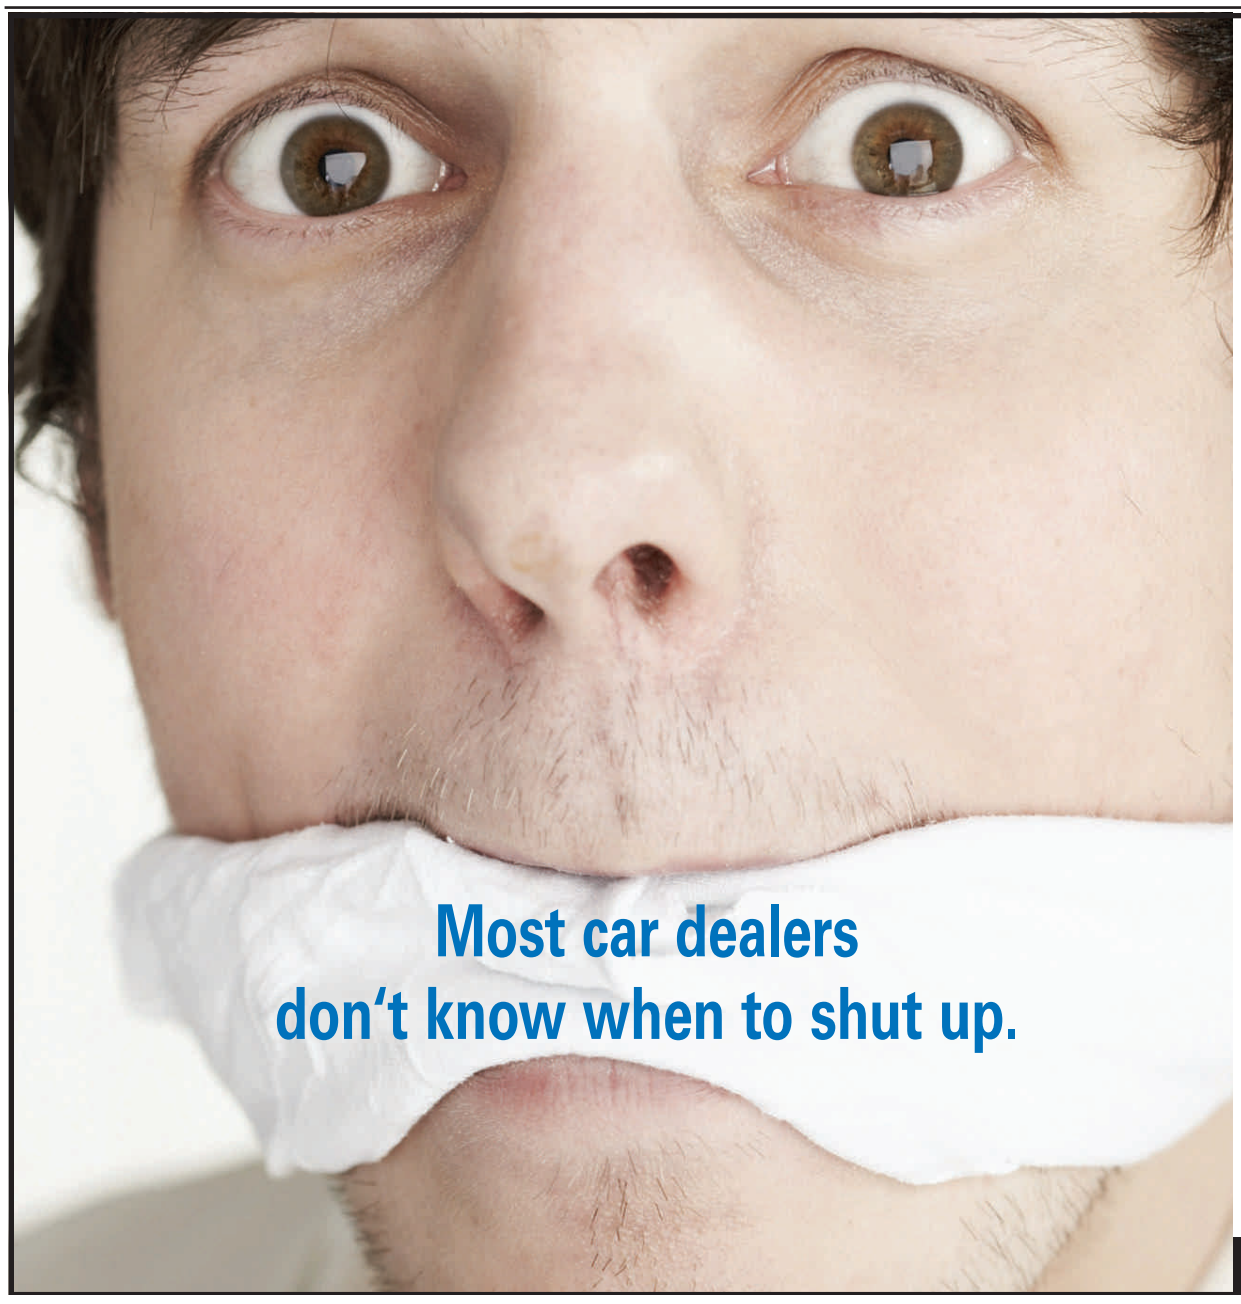
Standard equipment in the entry-level Pop includes ABS anti-lock brakes with EBD, driver, passenger, side and driver's knee airbags, radio/CD/MP3 player, power steering, electric mirrors, colour coded bumpers and chrome-plated door handles.

The extensive options list includes ESP, glass sunroof, metallic paint and parking sensors.

Sport and Lounge versions start at £9,300, while specifying a larger engine in any trim level adds £1,400.

Standard equipment on both Sport and Lounge versions includes the Blue & MeTM hands-free media system, air conditioning and 15" alloy wheels. Sport specification includes a rear roof spoiler, fog lights, sports interior and dark tinted rear windows, while Lounge trim includes a split, folding rear seat and fixed glass roof.

The simple pricing structure means that any combination of car is possible – customers simply start with a 1.2 Pop and add £1,400 for a more powerful engine, £1,400 for a higher trim level, or £2,800 for any combination of both. A huge list of style options – created specifically to offer customers wide-ranging opportunities for personalising the interior and exterior of their vehicles – is also available.



Buckingham Ford salesmen listen before they speak.

When you visit Buckingham Ford's showroom, you won't have some oily motormouth salesman talking your ears off, pretending to be your friend, pressuring you into buying or making you feel intimidated into making a purchase. Our salesmen don't earn commission; but they, and all our staff, earn the respect of our customers:

"Just to say thank you for all your help. I have always had great customer service from everyone at Buckingham Ford."
Miss K

"Thank you for all the help you have gave me regarding the car, which we both like very much."
Mrs D

So when and only when you need our help, we're ready to assist, in a friendly and courteous manner. We take the time to understand your motoring needs. Whether it's buying a new or used car or booking servicing and repairs, there's no hassle. And if you don't see what you're looking for, we'll do our best to find it for you. You can come in for a test drive with Kevin Church or James Emmitt, or just a coffee and a chat about how Buckingham Ford can ensure you enjoy happy motoring.

CREWE ALEXANDRA

FA Cup First Round
Saturday, November 10, KO 3pm
Gresty Road

THE most prestigious prize in English football is up for grabs again and MK Dons will need to overcome League One outfit Crewe Alexandra if they are to progress through to the next round.

The Railwaymen had a difficult spell at the start of the season but have picked up of late with seven points from their past three games.

While the Dons have hit their own tough patch although they have still taken four points from their three matches.

However, league form counts for nothing in the FA Cup and there is always potential for an upset. Something the Dons know only too well, last year it took a first round replay to beat Conference North outfit Farsley Celtic.

This time round the Dons will have the unfamiliar underdogs tag travelling to Gresty Road, and they will be without winger Lloyd Dyer as he serves the second of his three match ban.

AFC BOURNEMOUTH

Johnstone's Paint Trophy - Q/Finals
Tuesday, November 13, KO 7.45pm
Fitness First Stadium

ANOTHER cup match and another tough tie on the road for the Dons.

With the league taking a back seater for a week the Dons turn their attentions back to the Johnstone's Paint Trophy where they take on League One strugglers Bournemouth.

The Dons claimed their place in the quarter-finals with a convincing 3-1 win over Peterborough United, after having a bye in the first round, while Bournemouth overcame Walsall and Bristol Rovers.

If the scores are tied at the end of ninety minutes the game will be decided by penalties, there is no extra time.

Should the Dons bag a semi-final place, the draw will be made live on Soccer AM on Saturday, November 17.

VIEW FROM THE MOOCAMP

PAUL Ince was named October's Manager of the Month for League Two.

The Dons boss was given the accolade after guiding his side to four victories from five league games and to the top of the table.

Chairman of the Manager of the Month Awards panel, Chris Kamara, said: "Paul Ince's MK Dons have been on a terrific run of form of late, with four wins from five emphasising how consistent they have been.

"Paul has got his side playing some excellent football and their impressive results mean they continue to lead League Two."

DANNY Swailes has claimed his second spot in the League Two Team of the Week.

The Dons centre back played a pivotal role in helping the side hold out for a 1-1 draw, despite being two men down.

Swailes, 28, joined the Dons from Macclesfield in August and has been an ever present member since, which has allowed him to build a strong partnership at the back with Sean O'Hanlon.

League Two Team of the Week: Jim Provett (Bury), Simon Marples (Chester), Richard Rose (Hereford), Matthew Heywood (Brentford), Danny Swailes (MK Dons), Nicky Adams (Bury), Toumani Diagouraga (Hereford), Dean Keates (Peterborough), Myles Weston (Notts County), Simon Brown (Mansfield), Jack Lester (Chesterfield).

MK Dons Supporters Association played their Wycombe counterparts in the Internet Football Association League before the main match on Saturday.

The MKDSA team beat their counterparts 6-3 with impressive teenage prodigy Ashley Foster bagging another four goals to bring his goals scored tally up to 13 in four games. Other goal scorers were Jamie Bosdet and Adam Jones.

WYCOMBE WANDERERS v MK DONS SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3

Keith Andrews, Aaron Wilbraham, Mark Wright and Colin Cameron celebrate the MK Dons goal

New dad delivers for depleted Dons

Cameron strike makes sure honours remain even in 'the battle of Bucks'

BY SIMONE CORGAN
simone.corgan@mk-news.co.uk

A BRILLIANT defensive half-hour display from nine man MK Dons saw off wave after wave of Wycombe attack to hold out for a 1-1 draw.

Derby days are always meant to have a bit of fire to them and after the latest Buckinghamshire head-to-head future meetings will certainly have some way to go to match the drama.

Two red cards, a missed penalty and two well taken goals ensured honours were even after a gruelling 90 minutes, but the Dons were the ones who left the pitch feeling like they had taken all three points.

Controversially losing skipper Keith Andrews for a deliberate handball was a blow, the resulting penalty being saved by Willy Gueret felt like just deserts, but when Lloyd Dyer was sent for an early shower a minute later following a clumsy challenge, travelling fans would have been forgiven for thinking the writing was on the wall.

Thirty minutes left to hold out away from home was a massive challenge for Paul Ince's side and it was one they rose up to, with their fans at the opposite end signing throughout to help them along, they put their bodies on the line to keep that all important point.

In a scrappy first half Wycombe took the lead, against the run of play, with Matt Bloomfield on the end of a superb through ball to fire his fourth of the season.

But Colin Cameron, returning to the side for the suspended Alan Navarro, and celebrating the birth of his second daughter, responded with a composed finish following a startling break down the left from Dyer.

The Dons had Gueret to thank John Sutton for stopping John Sutton's spot-kick from putting the Chairboys back in front but any chances of the Dons grabbing a winner were ended when they found themselves two down.

Wycombe camped in the Dons half but could not find their way through the gritty defence and were left settle for the one point when Scott McGleish wasted numerous chances towards the end.

Red carded Dyer named player of the month

LLOYD Dyer has picked up the League Two Player of the Month Award.

The Dons winger beat off stiff competition from Barnet striker Liam Hatch, on-loan Chesterfield striker Adam Rooney and Chester midfielder Richie Partridge.

Dyer's electric pace has been a constant threat to his opposite numbers this season and with two goals to his name in the five games last month, he has become an integral part of Paul Ince's plans.

Chris Kamara, chairman of the Powerade Player of the Month Awards panel, said: "One of Lloyd Dyer's great strengths is his energy; he's able to motor up and down the left side all day and provides terrific service to his strikers. He's also added goals to his game this month and his excellent all round form is one of the main reasons why MK Dons remain the team to catch at the top of League Two."

ICE HOCKEY

GARY Clarke bagged a hat-trick as MK Lightning sealed their place in the EPL Cup semi-final with an impressive 5-2 win over Guildford Flames.

The victory puts Lightning six points clear and ensures they will finish at the top of their group with a game still to play.

Lightning opened their account after eight minutes when Mikko Skinnari played in Clarke who had only Alex Mettam to beat in goal.

But the Flames' response was instant as they hit back 26 seconds later with Milos Melicherik pulling the scores level. It was a close first period and just as it looked like it would remain even, Clarke stepped up to claim his second with a second remaining on the clock.

The Flames effectively lost the match in the next period as Chris McEwan doubled Lightning's lead with an unassisted goal before Toni Alasaarela was on target to give his side a 4-1 advantage with twenty minutes left.

With the help of Nick Poole and Daniel Croft, Clarke completed his hat-trick on the 48th minute but Lukas Smital grabbed a consolation goal for the Flames a minute later.

On Saturday Lightning also registered a 8-1 win over Wightlink Raiders in the first of their British Knockout Cup games. It was another dominant display for MK as they eased passed their Isle of Wight counterparts.

For all their possession Lightning were leading only 1-0 at the end of the first through Skinnari"s opener on the sixth minute.

Nicky Watt pulled the Raiders level early in the second period but MK soon started firing with four goals in the second with two coming from Clarke while Poole and Adam Carr were also at hand to add to the scoreline.

Man of the match Michael Wales joined in with a goal at the start of the final period before Skinnari and Danny Chaplen rounded of a convincing win for Lightning.

Meanwhile, Ales Parez (shoulder) and Greg Randell (fractured tibia) are set to be back in action sooner than originally expected following a weeks rest on their injuries.

Player coach, Nick Poole, told the clubs website: "Greg Randall and Al Parez visited the fracture clinic for an update on their injuries. Both were given better news and although nothing is definitive yet we are hopeful that they may be back sooner than originally anticipated.

"We are now looking at perhaps 4-5 weeks for both players instead of 6-8."

■ LIGHTNING turn their focus back to the league this weekend when they take on Peterborough this Saturday at home with face-off at 7pm. On Sunday they travel to Telford for a 5.30pm face-off.

PAUL MITCHELL WRITES FOR YOU

PAUL MITCHELL

WHAT a fantastic derby match!

It had everything; goals, controversy, flare-ups, penalty saves and an absolutely brilliant performance in what can only be described as a heroic last half-hour with nine men.

In the quieter moments of the weekend the manager will have watched the match video again and what he will have seen is a squad that are willing to go the distance and put their bodies on the line for him and the club.

For me that was the biggest test so far and we came through with flying colours. Maybe we didn't get the win but, with nine players left standing at the final whistle, a point is great achievement for everybody involved.

Looking at the bigger picture, I feel that Saturday's game has brought us closer as a squad and staff, cementing our great spirit and will to win. This in itself is worth its weight in gold as there are times in the season where you have to fight for the points and the Gaffer now knows that he can rely on this team to do that.

I have to say, speaking with Keith afterwards and after watching many replays, it was never a penalty. And to make matters worse, there was a Mitre football print on his shoulder where the ball struck him!

With the other sending off, what can I say? It was a typical flying winger's tackle – something that Lloyd wouldn't disagree with. One thing we all know is that Lloyd is a great player and that has been reflected in him winning the League Two Player of the Month award – an excellent bit of judgement in my opinion.

In last week's column, I asked you to get behind the team when things aren't going our way and there is no doubt you certainly did that. The lads, the management and I thought you were all amazing and had the whole stadium rocking on Saturday. You can't put it into words the feeling you get when you hear our fans cheering us on and it really spurred the boys to a great performance.

So much more of the same please because we have a busy schedule coming up and will need everybody.

See you soon.

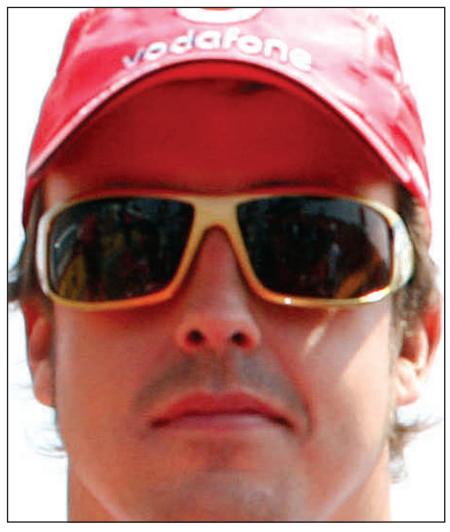
MOTOR RACING

Alonso for Red Bull?



RED Bull Racing are being tipped to pull off a remarkable double swoop, by signing up Fernando Alonso and former Ferrari technical director Ross Brawn for the upcoming season.

Alonso spilt from McLaren on Friday after both parties agreed an early release from his contract and it has since emerged that Red Bull are keen to secure his services.

But the MK-based team face stiff opposition from Renault, where Alonso won his two championship titles, who have already offered the Spaniard a return deal.

Renault boss Flavio Britori told Italian sports daily La Gazzetta dello Sport's website he had "presented a project for the future" to Alonso and added: "If his desires coincide with ours, it can happen.

"I know how much he can still give Renault. But an agreement for one year would have no sense with an outlook projected for a period of time."

The Guardian claims "informed sources" believe Red Bull are looking to sign up Alonso and Brawn, who was key to five world titles won by Michael Schumacher, to help the side become a major force in Formula One.

Brawn is regarded as one of the best technical directors on the circuit and should he turn up in Milton Keynes, he could form a strong, but expensive, partnership with chief technical officer Adrian Newey.

While they have not yet commented on the Brawn speculation, the racing outfit have been quick to down play the Alonso reports due to drivers David Coulthard and Mark Webber still under contract for the 2008 season.

The veteran paring secured Red Bull's best ever finish in the constructors championship, however the chance to snap up the talented 26-year-old could prove too tempting to turn down.

Team principal Christian Horner strongly denied the rumours, claiming the side were settled with their current drivers.

He said: "We are flattered that Fernando Alonso apparently considers Red Bull Racing a viable option for a race seat. It is a clear indication of the progress we have made over the past twelve months. However, we have contracts in place for 2008 with both our current drivers, David Coulthard and Mark Webber."

RUGBY ROUND-UP

SOUTHERN COUNTIES NORTH

A BRAVE Bletchley performance saw them hold out for a 24-24 draw with second placed Swanage and Wareham in the South West Two East division.

Nick Coussell opened the Bletchley account with an early try following some neat work from Carl Miller and Paul Evans and Phil Harman stepped up to add the conversion.

Swanage came straight back when their winger dived over for an unconverted try before an attempted kick was charged down and Swanage were 12-7 ahead.

A driving maul resulted in Number 8 Degan Probert crossing the line for Bletchley and centre Jamie Parker gathered a spilt ball to put them in front.

Probert was sent to the sin bin in the second half which allowed Swanage back in to the game as they grabbed two more draws to cancel a Harman drop-goal and claim the draw.

POOR discipline cost MK as they lost 17-10 to Slough in the Southern Counties North division.

MK fell 3-0 down when they were penalised after 20 minutes for hands in the ruck and the Slough fly-half did not need a second invitation to put his side ahead.

Turnover ball allowed MK to get their backs moving with Mads Jensen scored in the corner before Phil Powell converted from the touchline.

Slough upped the pressure in the second half which resulted in a well earned try, but Powell added a penalty to keep MK in front.

Steve Wakefield was sent to the sin-bin which allowed Slough to take advantage and secure the victory.

OLNEY moved four points clear at the top of the table following their 27-18 win over Amersham and Chiltern.

Scott Filler found his way through the field to score the first try of the game in response to Amersham's early penalty.

But his opposite number followed suit before half time to give Amersham an 11-5 advantage at the break.

Olney took a grip on the game on their return and frustrated their visitors which led to them seeing their tight head prop being yellow carded.

Mark Lay grabbed two tries while Mark Readman rounded off the scoring to keep Olney undefeated after eight games.

Olympians fall in Denmark

BADMINTON duo Gail Emms and Nathan Roberts suffered heartache in the Denmark Open and the French Open last week.

They lost to He Hanbin and Yu Yang in the Denmark Open final, which lasted 75 minutes, 21-17 19-21 21-17.

The Olympic silver medallists then went down in another marathon three-game battle with Chinese opposition in the French Open quarter-finals.

Emms and Roberts, who were seeded fifth, hit back from a game down against third seeds Xie Zhongbo and Zhang Yawen to take the second game before going down 21-12 19-21 21-19 in a tight 63 minute contest.

The England pair now have a couple of weeks off before the last two Super Series, the China and Hong Kong Opens. But they are well placed to qualify for the circuit's Masters finals just before Christmas.

Local football

IN the South Midlands league one CRANFIELD UNITED lost 3-2 at the hands of Haringey Borough while BUCKINGHAM ATHLETIC drew 2-2 with Kentish Town.

Rally driver's big finish

MK driver Supradip Dey Roy is looking to end his British Rally Championship Stars 1400 Championship season on a high in the final round, the Tempest Stars Rally, this Saturday.

He heads into the seventh and final round of the championship in fourth place in the overall drivers' championship standings and in second place in the FIA Class table following a consistent set of results this season.

"The aim is to put in a good finish on the Tempest," Roy added, "last year I did not finish the event and although I'm not really looking at the overall championship table any more I want to round-off the season well."

Reducing the risk of infection in hospital

What you can do to help

The publicity about hospital-acquired infection has caused a great deal of concern across the country. The ICNA (Infection Control Nurses Association) has seen an increase in the number of enquiries from members of the public to ask what they can do to help reduce their risk of acquiring an infection while they are in hospital as patients, or while they are visiting friends and relatives in hospital.

In response to these requests here are a few tips, taken from The Saxon Clinic's patient information leaflet, on how you and your visitors can help reduce the risk.

- Keeping your hands and body clean are important when you are in hospital. Take personal toiletries including soap and a clean flannel with you
- Taking a container of moist hand-wipes with you will insure you always have some available when you need to clean your hands
- Gentlemen should take their own razor with them so they can shave, rather than rely on one being provided for them
- Ensure you always wash your hands after using the toilet
- If you use a commode, ask for a bowl of water to wash your hands, or use a moist hand-wipe afterwards. At The Saxon Clinic we routinely offer a hand-wipe after someone has used the commode or bedpan
- Always wash your hands or clean them with a hand-wipe immediately before you eat a meal
- The Saxon Clinic provides a moist hand-wipe on your meal tray, but often patients use them after they have eaten. Use it at the start of your meal to ensure your hands are clean before you eat
- Hospital staff can help protect you by washing their hands, or by cleaning them with special alcohol rubs or gels. If a member of staff needs to examine you or perform a procedure, do not be afraid to ask if they have first washed their hands or used an alcohol rub or gel
- Try to keep the top of your locker and bed table reasonably free from clutter. Too many things left on top make it more difficult for the Housekeeping staff to clean these items properly
- The area around your bed should be cleaned regularly. If you or your visitors see something that has been missed during cleaning, do report it to the nurse in charge and request it is cleaned
- Always wear something on your feet when walking around in hospital. A comfortable pair of slippers is fine, but do make sure they have some grip on the bottom
- Please encourage your visitors to make use of the alcohol hand gel provided, before they visit you and when they leave

Every hospital, including The Saxon Clinic, has its own infection control policy in place. To find out more about how the hospital you visit deals with infection control, all you need do is ask a member of staff.

Women's health

Busy lives seldom leave us time to think about ourselves or our health. But your health is important – it helps you lead that busy life. So it's worth checking out any worries that you may have, or sorting something out that affects your ability to live life to the full. Women's health lets you do just that.

Are you worried about osteoporosis?

As we get older our bones naturally become less dense. For many people this leads to osteoporosis, a condition where the bones become fragile and are more likely to break. Osteoporosis screening from BMI Healthcare aims to find out if you have osteoporosis or if you are at risk of developing it.

Dons make small fry of Grimsby

MK Dons 2 Grimsby Town 0

Wright on time: Mark scores Dons' second

A DOMINANT MK Dons performance saw them beat Grimsby Town 2-0 and move four points clear at the top of the table.

It could have been much worse for the Mariners as the Dons had a tight grip on the match throughout and started in fine fashion with the first goal coming from Aaron Wilbraham after just 23 seconds.

Mark Wright completed the scoring four minutes before the interval and they could have increased their lead several times in the second half.

The result keeps Grimsby in a scrap at the wrong end of the table and comes a year ago to the day since Graham Rodger was sacked as the Mariners coach, ironically following a 3-1 defeat at the hands of the Dons.

Paul Ince was missing Lloyd Dyer and inspirational captain Keith Andrews from the starting line up after they picked up red cards against Wycombe, the former learning his appeal to have the dismissal rescinded just hours before the game.

The Mariners were rocked from the offset when their hesitant kick-off allowed the Dons straight at goal, an opportunity that needed no second invitation as Leon Knight whipped in the ball from the left for Wilbraham to nod into the net.

Conceding so early in the game forced Grimsby to tighten their defensive formation and weather the storm as the Dons began to play an attractive passing game in dangerous positions.

Phil Barnes pulled off a good save to stop Sean O'Hanlon from heading in Dean Lewington's cross and kept his side from falling two down.

MK upped their hunt for a second and it came 40 minutes later with Mark Wright claiming the plaudits with a well finished right-footed strike. But it was some slick movement in midfield that created the chance with the ball passing between Jemal Johnson, Alan Navarro and Wilbraham before falling at the feet of Wright.

The Dons could have extended their lead further in stoppage time when Tom Newey was penalised for hand ball in the Mariners' box, but Colin Cameron hit his spot-kick against the post.

Grimsby picked up their game on their return to the field with substitute Nathan Jarman's audacious 25-yard strike, which picked up a wicked deflection, one of their better chances.

The Dons felt hard done by when Shaluem Logan escaped with a booking despite being the last defender and bringing down Johnson outside the box.

But moments later they had the opportunity to add to the scoreline when Wright somehow poked Johnson's cross wide of the far post and Johnson then watched his curling effort also fall the wrong side of the post.

Grimsby were desperately searching for a goal of their own, but every time they edged into the Dons half they seemed to lose possession and send the Dons back on their own attack.

Wilbraham was once again demonstrating his range of qualities as he skimmed passed Hegarty and Newey to play Gallen through to goal. Barnes managed to juggle the striker's effort before clearing his lines.

Grimsby struggled to keep up with the Dons throughout the game and never appeared to pose any real threat up front.

Andy Taylor could have grabbed a late consolation for the visitors when he burst into the box, but Willy Gueret stayed composed to collect in the dying minutes.

MK DONS: Gueret, Lewington, Diallo, O'Hanlon (c), Knight (Gallen 54), Cameron, Wright, Wilbraham (Broughton 87), Navarro, Johnson (Smart 77), Swailes.
Goals: Wilbraham 1, Wright 41

GRIMSBY TOWN: Barnes, Newey, Clarke (Jarman 25), Hunt, Bennett, Till (Taylor 62), Toner (Hegarty 45), Boshell, Logan, Whittle (c), Butler.
Booked: Logan, Hegarty, Whittle
